Dr. Robert R. (Bob) Garrigus Endowed Scholarship Fund

Dr. Robert R. Garrigus, known as either Doc or Bob by literally hundreds of people, obtained his Ph.D. from the University of Kentucky and, after five years at Purdue, came to Middle Tennessee State University in 1967 where he soon established himself as a popular and effective Professor of Animal Science. He was the advisor of the Block and Bridle Club which was twice recognized as the most active chapter in the nation. His judging teams won more national (NACTA) championships than almost anyone.

It is time to recognize Dr. Garrigus' efforts in a very special way: by establishing an Endowment. The Robert R. (Bob) Garrigus Endowment will be a perpetual testament to the role that "Doc" played in many of our lives. As long as the School of Agribusiness and Agriscience remains a part of MTSU, students will know that a very special person contributed enough that others were moved to establish an Endowment in his name.

The Robert R. (Bob) Garrigus Endowment will provide provide scholarships for animal science students and support for the livestock judging program in perpetuity.

Dr. Garrigus and his family are in full support of this effort and a number of people and organizations have already made contributions and commitments.

Along with His wife Jan and their two children, Pam and Heather, the Garrigus family has served middle Tennessee and MTSU for almost a half century. With everything Bob has given to his former students to help us succeed, it is appropriate we show him our respect and appreciation by supporting the Dr. Robert R. (Bob) Garrigus endowed scholarship. Please join in continuing the Garrigus legacy and providing support for future generations to come.
