Explore John Adams: Unbound traveling exhibit, Walker Library First Floor
View MTSU Graphic Design students’ posters of Constitutional ideals
Todd Art Gallery, Walker Library Lobby, and Cope Lobby
Read portions of the Constitution posted on signs around campus all week!

Sunday, September 11
Share in the Rutherford County 9/11 Commemoration with MTSU student participants
2 pm, Rutherford County Sheriff’s Dept., 940 New Salem Hwy.

Tuesday, September 13
Engage in John Adams: A Lasting Legacy panel discussion with distinguished MTSU scholars
Drs. Lynn Nelson, Robb McDaniel, John Vile, and James H. Williams and the Chairman of the National Endowment for the Humanities, James A. Leach
11:20 am, Walker Library First Floor
Expand your thinking: Civility, the Constitution, and the Courts, the Centennial Constitution Day Distinguished Lecture by Chairman James A. Leach, National Endowment for the Humanities, 4:30 pm, Hinton Hall, Wright Music Building

Wednesday, September 14
Meet President John Adams: George Baker portrays our nation’s second president, Walker Library

Thursday, September 15
Print your own copy of the First Amendment on the Library’s replica 18th-century printing press, 10 am-2 pm, Walker Portico

Thursday, September 15 & Friday, September 16
9 am-4 pm Thursday, 9 am-1 pm Friday
★ Screen print a T-shirt of Constitution-inspired designs created by the students of Printer’s Proof
★ Listen and participate in socially conscious music of patriotism and protest by RIM students
★ Make vellum/parchment with the students of Agribusiness and Agriscience
★ Find out about campus civic engagement initiatives by MTSU student organizations
★ Meet President James Madison, framer of the U.S. Constitution, & his wife Dolley!
★ Sign the U.S. Constitution & register to vote!

Friday, September 16
Join MTSU as we read aloud the U.S. Constitution! 10 am, KUC Knoll (if rain, KUC Grill)

Saturday, September 17
National Constitution Day★

Tuesday, September 20
Living the First Amendment: Join a conversation with John Seigenthaler, founder of the First Amendment Center, and John Seigenthaler Jr., former NBC News Anchor and CEO of Seigenthaler Public Relations-NY, 1 pm, LRC 221

American Democracy Project
Distinguished Lecture Committee
James E. Walker Library
MTSU Public History Program
Center for Student Involvement and Leadership
John Seigenthaler Chair of Excellence in First Amendment Studies