

Globalizing Tennessee Panel

Tuesday Nov. 17

6-7:30 p.m. | BAS S277

RSVP murat.h.arik@gmail.com

The Role of Immigrant Entrepreneurs

Galen Hull, Tennessee Immigrant & Minority Business Group

MIDDLE TENNESSEE'S economy is becoming more globalized with the expansion of international companies such as Nissan, Bridgestone, Calsonic, and UBS in this region. At the same time, indigenous Tennessee companies are going global. This panel will discuss the important, growing role of immigrant businesses in the local economy.

John Wang

China

President, TN American Chinese Chamber (TAC3)
CEO and President, Music City Insurance
Publisher, TNCNNEWS

Carolina Beltran

El Salvador

Events Manager, Global Mall at the Crossings

Daoud Aboudiab

Palestine

President, Faith and Culture Center (FCC)
President, Tennessee Immigrant and Refugee Rights Coalition (TIRRC)

Thiru Ilanchelian

India

Regional Owner, Gogiro Middle Tennessee

Mario Ramos

Latin America

Mario Ramos Immigration Law

MIDDLE TENNESSEE
STATE UNIVERSITY

JONES COLLEGE OF BUSINESS
Business and Economic Research Center
Wright Travel Chair of Entrepreneurship

Global Entrepreneurship Week • November 16–22, 2015