Program Costs

The base program price is $4609, with group flight option of $1600-$1800. The program costs provide participants with health insurance, a 4-day BritRail pass for travel within Britain, London Travelcards for use on the London Underground and overground system, accommodations, and pre-loaded meal card for Guy’s Campus. Tuition (not included in the program costs) is determined by the student’s home institution. Participants should plan to bring a minimum of $1500 for other meals, entrance fees, additional transportation costs, and personal spending. A $150 deposit is due if you apply before February 13 ($250 if you apply by February 27, 2015). Students taking a second class will pay an additional $700 and will receive an 8-day BritRail pass.
