PUBLIC NOTICE – MTSU PETITION FOR WAIVER
FORREST HALL NAME CHANGE

Middle Tennessee State University, a locally governed public institution of higher education, hereby gives public notice of its intention to petition the Tennessee Historical Commission for a waiver that would allow it to rename Forrest Hall, a building on its Murfreesboro campus built in 1954 and officially named for Confederate Lieutenant General Nathan Bedford Forrest in 1958, to the Army ROTC Building. While under the governance of the Tennessee Board of Regents, the university initiated a request to rename the building, which the Tennessee Historical Commission declined to permit. The University, as authorized by its Board of Trustees, now petitions to rename Forrest Hall based upon changed circumstances in the law or facts which demonstrate a material or substantial need based on historical or other compelling public interest to justify the waiver petition.

A copy of MTSU's 2023 Petition of Waiver and supporting documentation will be available at no cost upon written request to the Office of the University Counsel, MTSU, 1301 East Main St., 209 Cope Administration Building, Murfreesboro, TN 37132. PETITION FOR WAIVER

Report
Including
Statement of Request,
Basis Upon Which Waiver is Sought, and Establishing a Material or Substantial Need on a Compelling Public Interest

Middle Tennessee State University (“MTSU”) petitions the Tennessee Historical Commission (the “Commission”) for a waiver that would allow it to rename Forrest Hall to the Army ROTC Building pursuant to the Tennessee Historic Preservation Act of 2016. Tenn. Code Ann. § 4-1-412; Tenn. Comp. R. & Regs. 400-70-01-.01 (2018).

Forrest Hall, named for Confederate General Nathan Bedford Forrest (“Forrest”), has served as home to MTSU’s Reserve Officers’ Training Corps (“ROTC”) program for over 65 years. Originally constructed and opened in 1954, the building was formally dedicated in 1958. Since its dedication, there have been periodic episodes of student and/or community concerns raised regarding the building’s name that continue till this day.

MTSU submits that this honorable Commission’s ruling to allow the relocation of the Nathan Bedford Forrest bust from the State Capitol to the Tennessee State Museum constitutes a change in the law acknowledging the special sensitivity involved with any commemoration of Forrest. In the Matter of the State Capitol Commission Regarding Request to Relocate the Busts of Nathan Bedford Forrest, David Glasgow Farragut, and Albert Gleaves, Administrative Procedures Division Docket Number 04.48-204639A (hereinafter State Capitol)<sup>i</sup>. Moreover, as reflected in MTSU’s current campus climate, the designation of the ROTC building as Forrest Hall has a continuing impact on the academic and working environment and constitutes a substantial public policy concern as outlined below. Accordingly, there are changed circumstances in the law or facts which demonstrate a material or substantial need based on historical or other compelling public interest to justify this waiver petition. Tenn. Code Ann. § 4-1-412(c)(8)(A).

As the honorable Commission is aware, MTSU was previously denied permission to rename Forrest Hall. In the Matter of Middle Tennessee State University, Tennessee Board of Regents, and Intervenor Sons of Confederate Veterans Nathan Bedford Forrest Camp #215 Regarding Forrest Hall, Case Number No.:04.47-150473A, THC 16-0001 (hereinafter Mid. Tenn. St. Univ.)<sup>ii</sup>. Subsequently, the Commission made the following Finding of Fact in the State Capitol case:

Forrest (1821 - 1877) was a slave trader who enlisted in the Confederate army during the Civil War as a private and rose through the ranks to become a lieutenant general. He was known as an expert cavalry leader and military strategist. In 1864, in what is now commonly referred to as the Fort Pillow massacre, troops under Forrest's command brutally killed a group of Union soldiers who many believe had already surrendered. Later, the Joint Committee on the Conduct of War investigated the incident and confirmed that Forrest's troops acted unjustly. After the war in 1867, it is believed that Forrest became the first national leader of the Ku Klux Klan, known as the grand wizard, although Forrest denied this claim in 1871.<sup>iii</sup>

The Commission made no such Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law in MTSU's previous case.<sup>iv</sup> In that instance, the Commission only made reference to "perceptions" of Forrest, but did not authorize MTSU to remove Forrest's name or recognize MTSU's proposed Forrest "historical timeline, with primary source set, be developed and housed in the Albert Gore Research Center on the MTSU Campus."<sup>v</sup> In finding "a material and substantial need for a waiver" in State Capitol,<sup>vi</sup> the Commission reasoned that the State Museum could display Forrest's bust "appropriately and with historical context."<sup>vii</sup>

Similarly, a Gore Center timeline would achieve the same with regards to Forrest's place in history especially given the Center's mission to support education, research, and civic engagement.<sup>viii</sup> Much like the State Museum, the Gore Center "has the means of educating the public not only on [Forrest], but on the current debate relating to Confederate memorials. The [Gore Center] can provide contextualization in a much more appropriate and convenient space than" a name on the façade of a building.<sup>ix</sup> The renaming of Forrest Hall "also advances the compelling public interest of racial reconciliation, as" MTSU "is a unique place of ongoing" educational opportunity "for all citizens of Tennessee, regardless of race. The interest of commemorating a famous Tennessean who has been dead for over 140 years is outweighed by the interest of thousands of citizens, [students (prospective, current, and graduates), faculty, and staff] who deem such commemoration . . . hurtful."<sup>x</sup> State Capitol Comm'n constitutes a change in the law to support the Commission finding that MTSU has carried its burden in order to allow the renaming of Forrest Hall.

Equally important, factual circumstances have evolved and continue to illustrate that Forrest Hall is a flashpoint of debate at MTSU. While the visual image and symbolism of Forrest Hall has long been a divisive subject, the controversy over Confederate statues, monuments and iconography gained greater awareness following these events: 1) the June 17, 2015, mass murder at Emanuel African Methodist Episcopal Church in Charleston, South Carolina;<sup>xi</sup> 2) the August 12, 2017, violence during a rally in Charlottesville, Virginia; and 3) lives lost in 2020 – the February 23, 2020, killing of Ahmaud Arbery in Brunswick, Georgia;<sup>xii</sup> the March 13, 2020, killing of Breonna Taylor in Louisville, Kentucky;<sup>xiii</sup> and the May 25, 2020, killing of George Floyd in Minneapolis, Minnesota. George Floyd's murder spurred both a run of protests throughout the United States and calls for racial reckoning including addressing "symbols of the Confederacy and their meaning."<sup>xiv</sup>

The University and the Murfreesboro community experienced such a protest on May 31, 2020. After a protest march around the historic Rutherford County Courthouse, a subgroup of protestors marched to Forrest Hall where a peaceful demonstration occurred calling for Forrest

Hall to be renamed.<sup>xv</sup> The next day, June 1, 2020, MTSU President Dr. Sidney A. McPhee addressed the campus uneasiness by expressing his sentiments:

As you may already have heard from various media reports, the City of Murfreesboro, like many cities across the nation, experienced a protest Sunday in response to the death of George Floyd. At the end of the peaceful demonstration on the Square downtown, a smaller group came to our campus to protest in front of our ROTC building which, despite our efforts, still carries the name of Nathan Bedford Forrest. . . I am so very proud of how our MTSU Police Department facilitated the peaceful demonstration on our campus in front of Forrest Hall late Sunday afternoon. Indeed, I was touched to see this video from The Daily News Journal of our police showing kindness and support. . . I urge our community to renew and reflect upon our values and further apply them in actions and deeds — so that justice, equality and humanity are available to all.

(Attachment 1). Shortly thereafter, Dr. Debra Sells, MTSU Vice President for Student Affairs and Vice Provost for Enrollment Services, crafted a June 3, 2020, email to share her thoughts of assurance and support to the student community after the George Floyd killing:

As the Vice President for Student Affairs, I am heartened by President McPhee's commitment to our students and the broader community. But on a personal level, like many of you, I am heartbroken. I worry for our country, and the future of our children, but closer to home, I hurt for our students - for each of you. I know that so many of you are suffering. So many are afraid. Some are reaching out to try to understand, but are falling short. And others still have so much to learn about compassion, and justice, and humility. I want you to know that I see your pain, and I stand with you in sadness and support.

I don't have answers for the racism that still confronts us and that requires our constant attention and vigilance. I wish I did. I know that pretending that racism doesn't exist is not the answer. We cannot be content to be bystanders. We must fight for justice and stand for equality. But I also know violence is not the answer, either. As someone once said, "We become what we do." And I don't want violence and hatred to take hold of your hearts.

As the University transitioned to a new academic year, the feeling of injustice and concern continued to permeate the campus community. Multiple conversations were held on campus including a September 16, 2020, panel discussion titled “Racial Justice Protests and the First Amendment” sponsored by the Free Speech Center at MTSU.<sup>xvi</sup> Also, the Forrest Hall controversy was directly addressed in detail during a virtual book talk held on October 14, 2020, sponsored by the Gore Center.<sup>xvii</sup> The discussion was later expanded upon in a February 24, 2021, Forrest Hall: An Open Letter penned by Sidelines, the student newspaper, which expressed that “[a]llowing Forrest’s name to remain on one of our university’s buildings is nothing but a repudiation of all the progressive attitudes and changes that millions of Americans marched for last summer. It's also a repudiation of the values and integrity of our university.”<sup>xviii</sup>

A month later, this Commission issued its Final Order in the State Capitol case. In response, MTSU Student Government Association (“SGA”) Petition 1-21-F was presented. This petition stated that “[w]ith the recent removal of the bust of Nathan Bedford Forrest from the State Capitol of Tennessee, we the undersigned currently enrolled students petition the Student Government of Middle Tennessee State University to remove the name of Forrest from the Reserved Officer Training Corps Building on our campus.” In turn, SGA Resolution 13-21-S was issued, which requested President McPhee to “reapproach the Tennessee Historical Commission and request to change the name of Forrest Hall.” (Attachment 3). On May 21, 2021, President McPhee advised SGA President Chelsea Moore that he remained committed to bringing the issue back to before the Commission. (Attachment 4). President McPhee noted that he had met with the leaders of various student groups who expressed that current and prospective students do not feel welcome on campus due to the presence of Forrest Hall.

In July 2021, President McPhee stated that “[t]he name of a building should be a net positive, or at least neutral, to our campus. . . . However, the name of this building, and the emotions it evokes, distracts from the values, goals and priorities we share as a modern, inclusive and comprehensive university.”<sup>xix</sup> He also reaffirmed his belief that renaming Forrest Hall is the right thing to do and his commitment to explore all available options.<sup>xx</sup> (Attachment 5). President McPhee expressed these same sentiments in an opinion piece he authored for The Tennessean.<sup>xxi</sup> Next, on September 14, 2021, as debate on Forrest Hall continued, the MTSU Board of Trustees voted unanimously to support efforts to remove Forrest’s name from the Army ROTC building.<sup>xxii</sup>

Against this new factual backdrop, the commemoration of Forrest on MTSU’s campus remains unresolved.<sup>xxiii</sup> Having the Army ROTC building named after Forrest appreciably distracts from the University’s mission and is a divisive wedge on the campus. These facts support a finding that a material or substantial need based on historical or other compelling public interest exists to justify the University’s waiver petition. Tenn. Code Ann. § 4-1-412(c)(8)(A).

Furthermore, MTSU is not alone in having to address this issue in the higher education sphere. However, unlike MTSU, numerous colleges have renamed buildings to remove segregationists, white supremacists, eugenicists, and confederate soldiers/iconography. For example:

- The University of Alabama System in support of its fundamental values:
  - University of Alabama at Birmingham - George C. Wallace Building, named after Governor George Wallace who said, “segregation now, segregation tomorrow, segregation forever” and stood in the doorway of Foster Auditorium in attempt to prevent two African-American students from registering, was renamed the Physical Education Building.<sup>xxiv</sup>

- The University of Alabama:
  - College of Education building renamed for Autherine Lucy Foster, the university's first Black student, and removed the name of Bibb Graves, a Grand Cyclops of the Ku Klux Klan and two-term governor;<sup>xxv</sup>
  - English department building renamed temporarily to English Hall and removed the name of U.S. Senator John Tyler Morgan, a former Confederate general and Ku Klux Klan Grand Dragon who called for the repeal of the 15th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution.<sup>xxvi</sup>
  - Honors College building renamed to Honors Hall and removed the name of Josiah Nott who was a eugenicist and supported slavery.<sup>xxvii</sup>
- Baylor University - The campus quad to be renamed to The Quadrangle and statue removed of Rufus Burleson, former university president who owned slaves and was a Confederate Army chaplain.<sup>xxviii</sup>
- Clemson University - In support of its core values, renamed the Honors College building to The Clemson University Honors College and removed the name of John C. Calhoun, a slave owner.<sup>xxix</sup>
- University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.<sup>xxx</sup>
  - The student affairs building removed the name of Julian Carr who fought for the Confederacy and supported the Ku Klux Klan.
  - A residency hall removed the name of Charles Bentley Aycock, a former North Carolina governor who ran on a white supremacist platform. Note that Duke University and East Carolina University had earlier removed Aycock's name from buildings.
- University of Richmond – Six campus buildings linked to slavery and racism were renamed.<sup>xxxi</sup>

In line with the institutional values reflected in the actions of the above sampled universities, the Commission should allow MTSU to rename Forrest Hall. This is especially appropriate as Forrest Hall is an academic building focused on ROTC, which is a commissioning program to develop cadet leadership skills to become officers in the United States Army. Students who enter Forrest Hall are engaged in a course of study and training that leads to active commission as a Second Lieutenant in the Army.<sup>xxxii</sup> While cadets may be trained in Forrest Hall, as Second Lieutenants in the Army, they will no longer serve on military bases named after individuals affiliated with the Confederacy.

The 2021 National Defense Authorization Act created the Commission on the Naming of Items of the Department of Defense that Commemorate the Confederate States of America or Any Person Who Served Voluntarily with the Confederate States of America ("The Naming Commission"). The Naming Commission recommended changing the names of nine Army bases, which the Department of Defense concurred with and issued a directive effective January

2023 to rename the following Confederate affiliated bases with implementation by January 2024.<sup>xxxiii</sup>

- Fort Benning, Georgia, was renamed Fort Moore, in honor of Lt. Gen. Hal Moore and his wife Julia Moore.
- Fort Bragg, North Carolina, would be renamed Fort Liberty.
- Fort Gordon, Georgia, was renamed Fort Eisenhower.
- Fort A.P. Hill, Virginia, was renamed Fort Walker, in honor of Dr. Mary Edwards Walker, the first female Army surgeon.
- Fort Hood, Texas, was renamed Fort Cavazos, in honor of Gen. Richard E. Cavazos, who won the Distinguished Service Cross during the Korean War.
- Fort Lee, Virginia, was renamed Fort Gregg-Adams, in honor of Lt. Gen. Arthur J. Gregg and Lt. Col. Charity Adams
- Fort Pickett, Virginia, was renamed Fort Barfoot, in honor of Colonel Van T. Barfoot, who received the Medal of Honor for service during World War II.
- Fort Polk, Louisiana, would be renamed Fort Johnson, in honor of Sgt. William Henry Johnson, who served in the first African American unit of the United States Army to engage in combat in World War I.
- Fort Rucker, Alabama, was renamed Fort Novosel, in honor of Army aviator CW4 Michael J. Novosel, who received the Medal of Honor for service in Vietnam.<sup>xxxiv</sup>

Again, graduates of MTSU's ROTC program will no longer serve as leaders on military bases with Confederate iconography. Their training in Forrest Hall; however, is even inconsistent with the cadets who learn at the United States Military Academy at West Point. As part of the Department of Defense directive, West Point, which is charged with training cadets to be "commissioned leaders of character committed to the values" of the Army,<sup>xxxv</sup> was instructed to "remove, relocate, modify or rename busts, memorials, streets and buildings named after Confederate figures."<sup>xxxvi</sup> West Point has already removed bronze panels depicting General Robert E. Lee and members of the Ku Klux Klan. Similarly, the Commission should allow MTSU to remove Forrest's name from the ROTC building and allow the University to address the last presence of Confederate iconography and symbols on campus.

MTSU respectfully asks the Commission to grant this Petition for Waiver so that the University may remove Forrest's name from the ROTC building. Simply put, "celebrating the legacies of those who contributed to the subjugation of others is a form of complicity in past horrors."<sup>xxxvii</sup> The University cannot continue to stand in unison with the name Forrest Hall. His presence on a University building does not reflect the core values and expectations of the University. As an academic institution, the University can properly account for Forrest's legacy in the classroom and through the Gore Center. Campus buildings are a "window to what we value" and he is not an individual who meets University standards for such an honor.<sup>xxxviii</sup>

MTSU submits that based on the changed circumstances in the law or facts outlined above there is clear and convincing evidence to support a determination that there is a material or substantial need to allow this Petition for Waiver based on historical or other compelling public interest.

<sup>iv</sup> Mid. Tenn. State Univ. Final Order. Given its previous petition for waiver, MTSU finds it prudent to address the doctrine of res judicata. Any assertion that res judicata applies is not persuasive. Even where the doctrine of res judicata is presented by a party, “Tennessee law favors the adjudication of disputes on their merits.” Regions Bank v. Prager, 625 S.W.3d 842, 852 (Tenn. 2021) (citations omitted). When addressing exceptions to the preclusive effect of res judicata due to previous litigation, Tennessee courts have noted that this principle does not bar facts that have changed or new facts that have occurred, which is the case here. Regions Fin. Corp. v. Marsh USA, Inc., 310 S.W.3d 382, 393 (Tenn. Ct. App. 2009) (citing Lien v. Couch, 993 S.W.2d 53, 56 (Tenn. Ct. App. 1998) (citing White v. White, 876 S.W.2d 837, 839–40 (Tenn. 1994))); see also 46 Am. Jur. 2d Judgments § 489 (2022) (the doctrine of res judicata extends only to facts and conditions as they existed at the time the judgment was rendered).

Moreover, in noting an exception to res judicata, Tennessee courts have referred to the Restatement Second. See Regions Fin. Corp. v. Marsh USA, Inc., 310 S.W.3d 382, 392–93 (Tenn. Ct. App. 2009). The Restatement provides that:

Although an issue is actually litigated and determined by a valid and final judgment, and the determination is essential to the judgment, relitigation of the issue in a subsequent action between the parties is not precluded in the following circumstances:

(2) The issue is one of law . . . and (b) a new determination is warranted in order to take account of an intervening change in the applicable legal context or otherwise to avoid inequitable administration of the laws; or

(5) There is a clear and convincing need for a new determination of the issue (a) because of the potential adverse impact of the determination on the public interest or the interests of persons not themselves parties in the initial action.

Restatement (Second) of Judgments § 28(2)(b), 5(a). See also 46 Am. Jur. 2d Judgments § 490 (“[R]eexamination is appropriate if the change in the law, or other circumstances, are such that preclusion would result in a manifestly inequitable administration of the laws.”)

In addition, the Tennessee Supreme Court has observed that

In addition, the courts have declined to apply the res judicata doctrine when a dispute involved matters of special sensitivity. Matters of special sensitivity most often arise in cases of developing constitutional principles and issues of broad public importance. See Parnell v. Rapides Parish Sch. Bd., 563 F.2d 180, 185 (5th Cir.1977) (declining to apply res judicata to a reapportionment suit lest the right to vote be applied differently in different locations); Christian v. Jemison, 303 F.2d 52, 54–55 (5th Cir.1962) (declining to apply res judicata to suit involving segregation issue in light of the intervening change effected by Brown v. Board of Educ., 347 U.S. 483, 74 S.Ct. 686, 98 L.Ed. 873 (1954)). Also included are cases of continuing conduct, which itself strains the typical application of res judicata, involving substantial public policy concerns, such as a suit to prevent continued environmental pollution. See 18 Moore's Federal Practice § 131.22[3]; 18 Federal Practice and Procedure § 4415, at 372.

Jackson v. Smith, 387 S.W.3d 486, 494 (Tenn. 2012) (emphasis added). As outlined in the body of this Petition, the continued use of the name Forrest Hall persists to create an inappropriate educational environment. In totality, this legal backdrop indicates that the need for a redetermination of whether MTSU is worthy of a waiver to rename Forrest Hall is compelling. # JUNE 1: Message from President McPhee on Protests Over the Weekend

To the University community,

As you may already have heard from various media reports, the City of Murfreesboro, like many cities across the nation, experienced a protest Sunday in response to the death of George Floyd. At the end of the peaceful demonstration on the Square downtown, a smaller group came to our campus to protest in front of our ROTC building which, despite our efforts, still carries the name of Nathan Bedford Forrest. The student protest was peaceful and occurred without incident as they exercised their First Amendment rights.

As a person of color, and as a leader of a public institution, I think I have a unique perspective not only on the events set in motion by the killing of Mr. Floyd, but also the fear, hurt and frustration that this tragedy has invoked particularly within the African American community. I find myself struggling to put these events into proper perspective for my children and grandchildren. I also find myself tired as I am faced with trying to make sense as some who are sworn to protect us, regardless of race or ethnicity, once again stand accused of brutality, poor judgment and, now, murder of a citizen.

The loss of Mr. Floyd is a painful reminder that we have so much further to go in becoming more accepting and inclusive of all members of our community. It has triggered response and rage from so many who feel rightfully that our society must show care and concern for all of us, not just some of us.

I believe we should express our beliefs and our feelings, and that we must call for meaningful change – but not in a violent manner. The MTSU True Blue Pledge reflects our values that include:

- honesty and integrity;
- engagement in our community;
- respect for diversity;
- and commitment to reason, not violence.

Let me be clear: We deeply appreciate the responsible and dedicated law enforcement officers and first responders who work tirelessly in service to our communities. That is why I am so very proud of how our MTSU Police Department facilitated the peaceful demonstration on our campus in front of Forrest Hall late Sunday afternoon. Indeed, I was touched to see this video from The Daily News Journal of our police showing kindness and support.

I take solace and comfort, that MTSU first expressed our True Blue Values almost 10 years ago. As we try to make sense of this societal moment during an ongoing global pandemic virus already challenging us in unprecedented ways, I urge our community to renew and reflect upon our values and further apply them in actions and deeds — so that justice, equality and humanity are available to all.

Sincerely,

Sidney A. McPhee

President

Email from Dr. Debra Sells, Vice President for Student Affairs and Vice Provost for Enrollment to MTSU students regarding the killing of George Floyd

From: Debra Sells

To: Tom Wallace <Tom.Wallace@mtsu.edu>

Subject: Please send out to each mtsu student email address. Thanks!

To each of our MTSU students:

We have already been rocked by so much this spring. The abrupt end to our on-campus classes. Goodbyes left unsaid. Seniors graduated without the usual pomp and circumstance. Student falling ill and others losing jobs. Uncertainty about what the summer and fall will look like. More than 100,000 dead in America from the coronavirus.

And now, the shocking injustice of the senseless killing of another unarmed black man in Minnesota: Mr. George Floyd. And across America, including here in Murfreesboro, our streets are filled with crowds demanding to know why this nation seems so unwilling or so unable to get to the root of the racism that is underneath these deaths.

I know you have read President McPhee's message to our community, which he sent on Monday. In his letter he expresses his personal struggle as he tries to help his children and grandchildren understand this national tragedy. President McPhee also commits to supporting our campus community as we make our way forward in the coming weeks and months, finding new ways, non-violent ways, to put our True Blue values into action to make this community and this nation more safe, just and fair for people of color.

As the Vice President for Student Affairs, I am heartened by President McPhee's commitment to our students and the broader community. But on a personal level, like many of you, I am heartbroken. I worry for our country, and the future of our children, but closer to home, I hurt for our students—for each of you. I know that so many of you are suffering. So many are afraid. Some are reaching out to try to understand, but are falling short. And others still have so much to learn about compassion, and justice, and humility. I want you to know that I see your pain, and I stand with you in sadness and support.

I don't have answers for the racism that still confronts us and that requires our constant attention and vigilance. I wish I did. I know that pretending that racism doesn't exist is not the answer. We cannot be content to be bystanders. We must fight for justice and stand for equality. But I also know violence is not the answer, either. As someone once said, "We become what we do." And I don't want violence and hatred to take hold of your hearts.

What can we do? What can I do? Those are the questions that keep me awake at night. We must do more than talk. We must act. I am proud that students of color make up more than a third of our total student body here at MTSU. We will continue to recruit, enroll, support and graduate a diverse student body that will help influence future change for the state of Tennessee. I am proud that our MTSU police force has a tradition of working with our students, not against our students, and that our officers are fully engaged in the life of this community. As we return this fall, our staff in the Center for Student Involvement and Leadership will continue to host “Critical Conversations” that bring diverse students together to talk about some of the toughest issues of our time—and there will be no lack of topics, given where we find ourselves today. And many of our faculty will take on these tough issues in our curriculum and in engagement events that take us into our community to put our learning into action.

We won’t get it perfect. We will disappoint some of you for not doing or saying enough, while others will be critical that we say and do too much. We’ll probably fail, but each time we fail, I hope we “fail better,” reflect on what we’ve learned, and identify the opportunity to do better.

I hope that each of you know that you are a valued and valuable member of this community. We may not always effectively communicate how much we care about you, but every day, every one of our decisions comes from a place of wanting to keep our students at the heart of what we do.

This is a hard time. We must be patient with each other. We must take care of each other. We must offer grace. We must work together to create the world we want to live in.

Stay well. Stay safe.

Dear Ms. Moore:

Dr. Sells forwarded me a copy of the SGA's Resolution 13-21-S. Thank you for the SGA's continued interest in the University's pursuit of removing the legacy of Nathan Bedford Forrest from this campus. As you know, the University as a whole, the Board of Trustees, and I personally, have been proponents of removing Forest's name from the ROTC building on campus for some time. But, as you also know, doing so requires a substantial showing before the Tennessee Historical Commission in order gain their approval to make the change. Our most recent attempt to gain approval was denied, with a substantial majority of the Commission voting against our request.

We are encouraged by the Commission's recent approval of the removal of Forrest's bust from the Tennessee State Capital. The Board of Trustees and I remain committed to bringing this matter back before the Commission in a manner and at a time that maximizes our likelihood of success. We will continue to make this issue a priority.

In addition, I have appointed Dr. Louis Woods to chair a working group on Social Justice and Inclusion. The SGA's Resolution has been forwarded to Dr. Woods for his review.

I appreciate the actions and support of the SGA and other student groups on this critically important issue. I have met with leaders of various groups on several occasions to discuss matters related to the renaming of Forrest Hall and other social justice initiatives. I have and will continue to support their interests on these matters and will take your request for a university-wide statement under advisement.

I will also consult with my staff regarding the request that the University investigate the names of other buildings on campus.

Thank you for expressing your interest and concerns regarding these important matters that affect all of us.

Sincerely,

Winton Cooper, SGA President, regarding
Campus Environment

Office of the President

Mr. Winton Cooper
President
MTSU Student Government Association
P.O. Box 1
Murfreesboro, TN 37132

Dear Winton:

As a follow-up to our meeting in May and in response to your letter of concern regarding events on campus that have created a sense of anxiety and unease among our students, particularly our students of color, I want to assure you that your voice is heard. You have my assurance that I, along with my Executive Team, share many of your concerns on our campus environment and are working to develop solutions that meet the needs of everyone in our campus family.

The matters we face are complex and, unfortunately, not confined to our campus community. Issues related to equality, inclusiveness and social justice represent challenges our nation continues to struggle with and require continue diligence and commitment. While we can address some of your concerns rather quickly, others will no doubt require time and patience to remedy. Nevertheless, we are committed to maintaining a welcoming, supportive environment for all our students.

One of the things that I have found, over the past twenty-one years, that makes MTSU such a unique institution is the commitment and dedication of our key leaders in responding to issues facing our campus. The consistently demonstrate a commitment to our students and the institution, assuring that the needs and perspectives of all involved are considered. In considering the issues outlined in your letter and to assist in responding to your concerns, I have asked our Executive Leadership Team to provide information on many of the issues outlined and make recommendations on potential solutions. I have considered this counsel and developed an action plan to begin to address the issues you have raised. This is not to say that our work is done, but to demonstrate that efforts are underway and more are planned.

While not specifically addressed in your letter, I feel it is important to mention one issue that has occupied a considerable portion of our time and efforts over the past few years, namely the status of the naming of Forrest Hall. With the recent decision by the State Historical Commission and the Tennessee State Building Commission to relocate the bust of Nathan Bedford Forrest from the State Capitol to the Tennessee State Museum, I am confident the building's naming will again be a topic of interest on our campus. Without detailing the extensive efforts we have undertaken over the past several years, our legal team continues to monitor state legislation and explore all options that might be available to us and I remain committed to our request to remove the name from the building.

In your role as SGA President, you represent the needs and concerns of our students and I welcome your input. In the coming months, it will be important that our students are aware of our commitment to their well-being and I will look to you and your colleagues on our Student Government Association to help bridge the communication gap between our administration and our student body. Your leadership will be crucial as we work through the issues you have brought forward.

Please accept my thanks for your efforts and I look forward to working with you in building a stronger university community.

Sincerely,
