Dear MTSU Fraternity and Sorority Life Community,

Thank you for your support and commitment throughout the past year! The MTSU fraternity and sorority community continues to make great strides. Our office has been so impressed with the high caliber of students and chapters we serve.

The purpose of this report is to provide you with a comprehensive glance of where we’ve been and where we’re headed! Below are some of our community highlights:

Our FSL chapters contributed $60,199.98 to local and national charities and donated 22,535 service hours to MTSU and Rutherford County.

Over 614 fraternity and sorority members made the Dean’s List during the 2012-2013 academic year.

Several new programs and initiatives were launched, all of which serve a specific purpose related to the needs of our community, such as: community image and branding, governing council structures, health and safety of chapters and community members, entire member development, and leadership development opportunities for community and chapter leaders.

As we begin the 2014-2015 academic year, it is our hope that we can keep the momentum going and work together to advance fraternity and sorority life at MTSU. We are so appreciative of our partnership with students, staff, faculty, alumni volunteers, and international headquarters. With these relationships, we are able to provide students with a valuable fraternity and sorority experience at Middle Tennessee State University.

Interfraternally,

Donald Abels
Coordinator
During the mid-1800’s, men attending institutions of higher education realized the need for teaching in life and not just academics. Thus, fraternal organizations were formed with ideals centered on brotherhood, leadership, scholarship, and service. At MTSU, there are 11 fraternities. The Inter-fraternity Council acts as the self-governing body to these organizations and promotes the valuable opportunities each chapter offers.

The winner of the competition was held at a Give Back Night at Jefferson’s.

The Canned Food Drive was held in the Student Union and KUC throughout the week. Donations were also accepted at the Talent Show, which included over 10 acts and over 400 participants. The Yard Party served as a recruitment event for each of the NPHC organizations. All students were welcome to stop by and enjoy free food, play yard games, and listen to a live DJ. A Night in the Union was also open to all students, with free admission into the game room. Skate Night was open to Greek students only and profits were donated back to the council. The Panhellenic Council held their annual trick-or-treat event on Greek row for the first time. Traditionally, this community wide event took place in walnut grove. The change of location allowed for participation among the entire FSL community, which resulted in more trick-or-treaters than previous years. In addition to IFC, NPHC and PHC organizations, the Global Learning community joined in on the festivities. Each of the eight houses provided games and activities such as: face painting, balloon darts, fishing for apples, beanbag toss and more. Crash the Commons is an event put on by the fraternity and sorority community that allows new students to team up with their Residence Hall or Off – Campus Apartment Complex to compete in small games and activities. Directly following the games, a large outdoor glow themed dance party was put on. During our inaugural year we are proud to announce over 2,000 students attended. This year’s winning team, Alpha Delta Pi and Lyon Hall, received a piece of the Student Union!
DAVID STOLLMAN  October 21
David Stollman is a well-respected leader within the fraternal world and co-founder of both CAMPUPSEAK, an award-winning speaker’s agency, and HazingPrevention.org. David shared his keynote, “Buy In Our Get Out” with over 750 fraternity and sorority members. David focused on a common problem among fraternity and sorority communities—the issues of good leaders and good chapters not being able to reach their full potential because they are always having to clean up after the members who don’t get it. His message was inspiring to those eager to care about the true purpose of fraternity and sorority—fellowship, service, leadership and scholarship. He challenged members to embrace the best and get rid of the rest.

PHIRED UP  April 17
Tina VanSteenbergen and Taylor Deer, Organizational Growth Experts, spoke to over 600 fraternity and sorority members on the importance of conversations, authenticity and vulnerability. The purpose of the educational program is to help members, chapters, and the entire community realize how important it is to be socially excellent. Additionally, Tina and Taylor outlined how chapters can improve recruitment, retention and overall membership by focusing on the power of conversations.
The FSL Chapter Officer Academy is a one-day program designed specifically for chapter officers. Each participant will be required to attend specific sessions that correspond with his or her position. Participants will be given this information upon arrival. Participants will be able to choose what to attend during the other sessions. Sessions included alumni engagement, recruitment, scholarship and academics, retention and chapter accountability. Session facilitators consist of inter/national organization professionals and volunteers, as well as campus-based professionals, such as: Vanderbilt University, United Way, and Rutherford County Schools.

ADVISOR’S RECEPTION  September 2013
Fraternity and sorority life hosted the first inaugural advisor’s reception in the fall of 2013. The reception was a casual, come and go, evening social. The 2013 edition of MTSU’s FSL Guide was available for the first time to advisors during this event.

COUNCIL OFFICER TRANSITION  November 2013
The first inaugural council officer transition ceremony was held in November of 2013. The purpose of this special event is to recognize the outgoing officers from all three councils for their hard work and contributions to the FSL community. The new executive boards for each council officially began their terms as they are sworn into office at the ceremony’s conclusion.
