The NPHC Homecoming Step Show Chair is responsible for the planning and execution of the Step Show in coordination with the FSL Staff. The Chair will be responsible for leading all Step Show meetings and will work with chapters to make sure the Step Show is a successful event. Additionally, the Chair will meet with the Step Show advisor on a regularly scheduled basis and will work with the advisor on all Step Show related plans. The Chair must maintain frequent communications in regards to all aspects of the planning and execution of the Step Show. It is the expectation of the Step Show Advisor that the Chair will respond to all Step Show related communications within 48 hours and copy each other on all correspondence. The majority of Step Show planning will take place over the summer. Therefore, the Step-Show Chair must reside in Murfreesboro over the summer and be available as needed.
