A recruitment counselor is a woman who is a member of a sorority at MTSU and has disaffiliated from her chapter in order to facilitate the recruitment experience for potential members. Recruitment counselors are there to answer questions and to provide support, friendship, and personal guidance to women going through the recruitment process.

A recruitment counselor’s primary responsibility is to help potential members have a positive recruitment experience and solve any problems a potential new member might encounter.

What is the most important attribute you have gained from being a sorority woman?

The most important attribute I have gained from being a sorority woman is how to be a successful woman in all aspects of my life. I have held myself to a higher standard and I have had a community of beautiful woman push me to be a better person all around. It is important as a young woman to have the genuine support of other women and that is truly seen within MTSU's Greek community.
