A recruitment counselor is a woman who is a member of a sorority at MTSU and has disaffiliated from her chapter in order to facilitate the recruitment experience for potential members. Recruitment counselors are there to answer questions and to provide support, friendship, and personal guidance to women going through the recruitment process.

A recruitment counselor’s primary responsibility is to help potential members have a positive recruitment experience and solve any problems a potential new member might encounter.

What defines being a sorority woman?

Kindness. Even though it seems too simple to be true, kindness should be what a sorority woman is made of. The world lacks genuine kindness and I believe that a sorority woman is unapologetically kind-hearted to not only the other women in her chapter but also to her fellow Panhellenic sisters and to every other woman she encounters.