A recruitment counselor is a woman who is a member of a sorority at MTSU and has disaffiliated from her chapter in order to facilitate the recruitment experience for potential members. Recruitment counselors are there to answer questions and to provide support, friendship, and personal guidance to women going through the recruitment process.

A recruitment counselor’s primary responsibility is to help potential members have a positive recruitment experience and solve any problems a potential new member might encounter.

If you could give one piece of advice to women going through recruitment what would it be?

No matter where you end up on Bid Day, give it a shot! You may not get your first choice, but you’re there for a reason. You’re there because a group of women saw something beautiful in you, and they want to share that with their entire chapter. Try it out, get to know the women, and be yourself. Who knows? You might have been in the perfect place for you all along!
