A recruitment counselor is a woman who is a member of a sorority at MTSU and has disaffiliated from her chapter in order to facilitate the recruitment experience for potential members. Recruitment counselors are there to answer questions and to provide support, friendship, and personal guidance to women going through the recruitment process.

A recruitment counselor’s primary responsibility is to help potential members have a positive recruitment experience and solve any problems a potential new member might encounter.

What is the most important attribute you have gained from being a sorority woman?

The most important attribute I have gained from being a sorority woman is authenticity. One of my biggest fears about joining a sorority was that I would lose sign of who I truly am to fit in. The reality is that once I joined, I found a group of women who encourage individuality and have made me more confident in who I am as a woman.
