A recruitment counselor is a woman who is a member of a sorority at MTSU and has disaffiliated from her chapter in order to facilitate the recruitment experience for potential members. Recruitment counselors are there to answer questions and to provide support, friendship, and personal guidance to women going through the recruitment process.

A recruitment counselor’s primary responsibility is to help potential members have a positive recruitment experience and solve any problems a potential new member might encounter.

If you could give one piece of advice to women going through recruitment, what would it be?

My advice to women going through recruitment is be open minded. Do not let the words of others cloud your own judgment. Where you go will be your home! Why choose your home based on someone else’s opinion? Oh, and if you start getting cold feet, talk to me! That is what I am here for!
