A recruitment counselor is a woman who is a member of a sorority at MTSU and has disaffiliated from her chapter in order to facilitate the recruitment experience for potential members. Recruitment counselors are there to answer questions and to provide support, friendship, and personal guidance to women going through the recruitment process.

A recruitment counselor’s primary responsibility is to help potential members have a positive recruitment experience and solve any problems a potential new member might encounter.

What is the most important attribute you have gained from being a sorority woman?
Selflessness. The moment you open that bid and run into the arms of 100 women to your new home... in that very moment it is no longer about "me" or "I." It's about "us."
