

MTSU Professional Development Summer 2009

This summer is the right time to complete your Occupational Culinary Arts Endorsement. Four courses will be offered; two online and two in a commercial foods lab at a high school in Murfreesboro. Students can take these courses at either the graduate or undergraduate level. Accommodations are available on the MTSU campus.

Registration begins April 6th at www.mtsu.edu.

Text: OnCooking 4th ed. by S. Labensky, and A. Hause.

NFS 4220 Food Systems Management.

May 11th – August 7th online. ServSafe Food Managers Exam and Internship. Three credits.

FCSE 4502 Culinary Arts Occupational Field Experience.

June 1st – July 2nd. Three credits. Monday and Tuesday 9:00am – 4:00pm

FCSE 4570 Occupational Family and Consumer Sciences Seminar.

June 1st – July 2nd. Three credits. Wednesday 9:00am – 5:00pm

NFS 3100 Culture and Food in the United States.

June 1st – August 7th. Online -Three credits.

Approximate Costs:

- Undergraduate endorsement $2,800 (Graduate endorsement $4,100)
- ServSafe Exam Voucher $35.00 (ServSafe Course Book with Online Exam Voucher $86.00)
- Knife Kit $80.00
- Textbooks and Room and board not included in pricing above.

Middle Tennessee State University

Contact Information:

Dr. Sandra Poirier, Associate Professor

Phone: 615-898-2093

Email: spoirier@mtsu.edu