

Leadership Studies

an interdisciplinary minor

Program of Study

Leadership Studies is an interdisciplinary, 17-credit minor hosted by the Management & Marketing Dept

Required Courses (5 credits)

- LEAD* 3010 Leadership Theories & Practices
- EXL 3020 Practicum in Leadership Studies (1 credit)
- LEAD* 4001 Integrative Seminar (1 credit)

Electives (12 credits – at least 1 course must be chosen from each of the 3 competency areas)

Leadership & Communication

- COMM 2300 Interpersonal Communication
- COMM 3220 Small Group Communication^{EXL}
- COMM 4900 Internship in Communication^{EXL}
- ORCO 3240 Introduction to Organizational Communication^{EXL}
- ORCO 3500 Strategic Communication in Organizations^{EXL}
- ORCO 3650 Conflict & Organizations^{EXL}

Leadership & Organizations/Groups

- MGMT 3610 Principles of Management
- MGMT 4200 Leadership in Organizations
- ORCO 4220 Internship in Organizational Communication^{EXL}
- PS 3100 Politics and Film
- PS 3250 Public Administration
- PSY 2210 Psychology of Social Behavior
- PSY 4360 Organizational Psychology
- PSY 4380 Group Dynamics
- REC 3520 Leadership & Group Process in Recreation & Leisure Services
- SOC 3950 Social Organizations & Institutions
- SOC 4500 Social Psychology

Leadership & Personal Development

- ABAS 4250 Leadership in Agricultural Studies
- COMM 4320 Theories of Persuasive Communication
- MGMT 3890 Managerial Decision Making
- MGMT 3940 Business Ethics^{EXL}
- MGMT 4680 Organizational Behavior
- PHIL 3150 Ethics
- PSY 4390 Persuasion
- PSY 4460 Psychology of Happiness & Well-Being
- UH/UNIV 4010 Institute of Leadership Excellence
- WMST 2500 Women's Leadership and Self Empowerment

*LEAD was previously LEST

EXL denotes Experiential Learning Scholars Course (see mtsu.edu/~exl for details)

mtsu.edu/leadershipstudies

Dr. Deana Raffo, Advisor draffo@mtsu.edu 615.494.8713 BAS N106