YOUNG SOLOIST: MUSIC COMPETITION

Young Soloist is a vocal and instrumental music competition for young adults with disabilities ages 14-24. The winner of our State competition represents TN at an international competition at the John F Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts. Elliott McClain, our 2016 winner, was the 2017 International winner. He will be performing at the event. He is a graduate student at Belmont University studying piano performance. He will be joined by this year's 6 finalists.
