Companies are looking for leaders. It could be you!

Middle Tennessee State University has developed a leadership program designed to build greater depth in leadership while creating advancement and professional opportunities.

Applied Leadership Certificate Program

The Applied Leadership Certificate Program at MTSU provides up to four individual undergraduate certificates covering topics needed in today's business environment.

- Certificate in Leadership Theory
- Certificate in Communication and Problem Solving
- Certificate in Leading Teams
- Certificate in Leading People and Managing Change

Each certificate consists of two online courses lasting seven weeks each and a one-week intensive training on site. The courses feature content related to business ethics, leadership theory, communications, organizational change, negotiation, and conflict resolution.

Successful completion will result in an undergraduate certificate and 10 hours of college credit for each certificate program.

What if I want to use this program to earn a bachelor's degree?

Completion of all four certificates will fulfill the major requirements for the Bachelor of Science in Liberal Studies, Applied Leadership concentration.

Completion of the Applied Leadership Certificate Program, combined with what you have learned in your career and other courses you might have already taken, can help you earn your degree very quickly. Because every student enters the program with a unique background, our specialists can help you determine your specific requirements to finish your degree. You may be closer than you think.

How do I get started?

Go to mtsu.edu/adcp and complete the form, or call us at 615-494-7714.

Our specialists can answer your questions about the certificate program as well as what you need to get a college degree.