Future Actions:

Use of Prior Results:

Student Learning Outcome:

8: Students will apply advanced knowledge in one field of specialization (Employment Relations, Financial Economics, or Econometrics) to new problems to obtain meaningful results.

Measure 1:

1: Seventy-five percent of students who choose a specialty in Employment Relations will score at least 75% on the final exam in ECON 6040, Survey of Employment Relations. THIS IS A WORKING MEASURE AND MAY BE REPLACED BY THE ECFN ASSESSMENT COMMITTEE.

Person(s) Responsible:

Duane Graddy

Completion Date:

06/30/2015

Analysis of Results for Measure 1:

(include strengths & weaknesses):

The Employment Relations Concentration has not been a viable program for several years. For 2014 – 2015, no students are in the concentration. Currently, the program does not have a Degree Plan. Only General Economics and Financial Economics are listed at the College of Graduate Studies web site. ECON 6040 is not an actively offered course; it hasn’t been scheduled for several years.
