

Victoria Dawn Shelar, PhD, COI, CTRS

Professor

Dr. Shelar is President of Rethinking Therapy, a company designed to investigate technology based solutions to enhance opportunities for persons living with disability. She serves as the Program Manager of Recreation and Leisure Services at Middle Tennessee State University in the College of Education and Behavioral Science. Dr. Shelar's PhD is in Recreation and Leisure Studies from the University of Maryland (1988). She recently completed the national certification as an Online Instructor (COI). Additionally, Dr. Shelar is a nationally certified Recreational Therapist (CTRS). You may access her website at <http://www.mtsu.edu/~vshelar>