Help Us Reach Our Goal

The Office of Student Organizations and Community Service, the Student Government Association, the Office of New Student and Family Programs, and MT Athletics are teaming up to sponsor "Help Us Reach Our Goal" canned food drive during the week of February 19-23.

The goal is to collect boxes of canned goods that will be stacked up to reach a basketball goal at the February 24 basketball game vs. Florida Atlantic.

All individual students, student organizations, and MTSU departments are invited to participate in the drive. Everyone is encouraged to decorate boxes with their name and show school spirit to show support to the Lady Raider and Blue Raiders on February 24.

The deadline to submit a box of canned goods is Friday, February 23. Boxes may be delivered to KUC 326. For questions, please contact Jamie Burns at jlburns@mtsu.edu.

Collegiate Leadership Summit

Registration is now open for the Collegiate Leadership Summit 2006. CLS is a one-day leadership conference for students from regional colleges and universities. Conference presentations focus on the concepts and techniques that characterize effective leadership.

The format is structured to encourage students from different institutions to network, interact, and learn from one another. This year's theme is "The House that Leadership Built" and will be hosted by Austin Peay on March 16. Registration is $35.

MTSU will provide transportation with limited availability on a first come, first serve basis.

More information can be found at <http://www.apsu.edu/sll/CLS%202007.htm> or by contacting Dr. Raffo at draffo@mtsu.edu or (615) 898-5786.
