Courses in the Department of History are designed to meet the General Education needs of all students as well as to provide a solid foundation for those planning to pursue careers in history, law, journalism, business, and other fields.

The department offers a Bachelor of Arts degree in History and a Bachelor of Arts degree in History (teaching). The department also offers a minor in History.

General Education Requirements

All students seeking a degree from the University must complete 6 semester hours in General Education History, selected from HIST 2010, 2020, and 2030. Sophomore-level standing (or above) is recommended for 2010, 2020, and 2030. For General Education Humanities and/or Fine Arts, one course of Western Civilization (1010, 1020) or World Civilizations (1110, 1120) may be taken (see pages 64–67).

Curricular listings include General Education requirements in Communication, History, Humanities and/or Fine Arts, Mathematics, Natural Sciences, and Social/Behavioral Sciences categories as outlined on pages 64–67.

Major in History (B.A.)

A major in History consists of 39 semester hours (13 courses). Four are lower-division courses: two 1000-level courses consisting of 1010* or 1110* and 1020* or 1120*; two 2000-level courses selected from 2010*, 2020*, and 2030*. Nine are upper-division courses, one of which must be 3010 (Historian’s Craft); two must be selected from each of the following areas: global, European, and U.S.; the remaining two may be any upper-division courses. The student must also fulfill all the other requirements for the B.A. degree (see page 60), to include a foreign language* and a specific minor listed for the B.A. History majors are to see their departmental advisors at least once per semester.

*Courses counting as General Education requirements that are also needed for the History major.

Major in History (B.A.) with Teacher Licensure

A major in History with teacher licensure consists of 39 semester hours (13 courses): five lower-division courses: 1110*, 1120*, 2010*, 2020*, and 2030 (3060 may substitute for 2030); and eight upper-division courses. Of the eight upper-division History courses, one must be 3010 (Historian’s Craft); two must be selected from each of the following areas: global, European, and U.S.; and the remaining course may be any upper-division course. Students must also fulfill all the other requirements for the B.A. degree (see page 60), to include a foreign language and a specific minor listed for the B.A., and must meet additional teacher licensure requirements and the Secondary Education minor requirements. History majors are to see their departmental advisors at least once per semester.

Prerequisites in foreign language may result in more than 124 hours

Major in History (B.A.) with Teacher Licensure

Add-on Endorsement for Teacher Licensure in History

An add-on endorsement in History requires 21 hours (7 courses). Those courses are HIST 1110, 1120, 2010, 2020, 3010, one upper-division course in United States history, and one upper-division course in either global or European history. This endorsement assumes an initial teaching licensure and lacks three upper-division hours to fulfill the requirements for a History minor.
Secondary Education Minor Requirements

Students must contact the Secondary Education minor advisor for approval of appropriate courses. (For specific procedures and additional requirements for teacher licensure, see page 205.)

NOTE: Please see the Educational Leadership Department on page 210 for information for Secondary Education requirements.
