

Interdisciplinary Majors and Minors

Interdisciplinary majors and minors provide programs of study that focus on a specific theme by combining courses from different disciplines and several academic departments.

Interdisciplinary Majors

The specific requirements and the coordinating department for each of the University's interdisciplinary majors are described below. Also listed is the faculty advisor for each major, his or her campus location, and the coordinating department.

Environmental Science and Technology

Director: John DiVincenzo

Location: Wiser-Patton Science Hall 0100A

Environmental Science and Technology is an interdisciplinary major offered in the College of Basic and Applied Sciences. The broad-based curriculum offers coursework in the natural sciences, life sciences, mathematics, agriculture, technology, and the arts. Four concentrations in environmental areas—Energy Technology, Environmental Health and Safety, Planning and Site Analysis, and Water and Waste Management—are available to allow the student to pursue an area of interest.

No minor is required but is encouraged for EST students. Courses that are part of a student's major cannot be used in a minor. The requirements for a major in Environmental Science and Technology can be obtained from the director of the program and include an EST core, 30 hours in General Education outside of the math and science areas, and several hours in an identified specialty or concentration. Each of the concentrations has its own advisor.

NOTE: The specific requirements and characteristics of the concentrations are under review.

Typical employment opportunities exist in the various levels of governmental agencies and as environmental consultants in manufacturing, construction, and agricultural industries in such areas as air and water quality control, environmental analysis, recycling, hazardous and solid waste management, and noise.

Courses are offered by Agribusiness and Agriscience, Biology, Chemistry, Engineering Technology, and Geosciences.

Students are encouraged to pursue opportunities offered through the Center for Energy Efficiency and the CLEAR Water Initiative. The center promotes energy economics and environmental awareness and stewardship for students, faculty, administrators, and others in the community. Through interaction with local, state, and federal associations, the center offers certification seminars, educational and training opportunities, and leadership in achieving energy management and efficiency goals. The institute is an interdisciplinary group of scientists that address environmental issues related to water quality. Undergraduate research opportunities exist.

Students should consult their advisors each semester to plan their schedules.

Concentration: Energy Technology

The Energy Technology concentration under the Environmental Science and Technology major includes course work in conservation and the environmental issues in the use of nonrenewable energy sources. This program offers preparation for students seeking employment in the energy management, air pollution control, and resource management fields.

Concentration: Environmental Health and Safety

The Environmental Health and Safety concentration of the Environmental Science and Technology major includes course work in calculus-based courses in physics and engineering mechanics, engineering design, and safety. This course of study offers preparation for a variety of careers in environmental engineering technology, safety, design, and environmental consulting, as well as graduate degree programs in environmental engineering.

Concentration: Planning and Site Analysis

The Planning and Site Analysis concentration under the Environmental Science and Technology major offers training in environmental planning, the collection and analysis of information on the natural environment to be completed before design and construction of a project. The goal of planning is to avoid natural hazards, conserve natural resources, and protect the environment through sound ecological principles. Effective environmental planning results in the efficient management of natural resources, insuring sound economic development while minimizing environmental degradation.

Concentration: Water and Waste Management

The Water and Waste Management concentration under the Environmental Science and Technology major looks at solid waste which is deposited on land and in water, sometimes causing serious environmental problems. However, wastes may be handled as a resource. Major issues of waste management include problems and benefits associated with landfilling garbage and with the need to reduce the waste stream. Major concerns to be considered in assessing waste management problems and solutions are (1) environmental quality: wastes must be managed so they do not pollute air or soil water resources; nor should they be used in a way that might introduce a toxic or pathogen into the food chain; (2) organic waste as energy resources: incineration can be studied as an alternative to landfilling or application; organic wastes may also be a source of fertilizers.

Organizational Communication

See page 212 for more information.

Interdisciplinary Minors

These minors require the student to complete a minimum of 15 to 21 hours from a list of specific courses. Unless otherwise noted, a student may take no more than 6 hours of courses from a single department until he or she surpasses the required minimum number of hours necessary for completing the minor. Exceptions to this rule may be found within the discussions of several of the minors below. In most cases, a student is also limited to just 3 hours of credit toward the minor in the same department or discipline in which he or she is taking a major. Except for the Paralegal Studies minor, no course may be counted both for major and minor credit. Students must fulfill all departmental prerequisites for any course within an interdisciplinary minor. In some cases, advisors may approve course substitutions within these program requirements.

The specific requirements and the coordinating department for each of the University's interdisciplinary minors are described below. Also listed is the faculty advisor for each minor and his or her campus location.

African Studies

Director: Moses K. Tesi, Department of Political Science, PH 209

The 18-hour interdisciplinary minor in African Studies offers students the opportunity for systematic and comprehensive study of African arts, cultures, economies, geography, history, literature, politics, and religions. It seeks to provide or enhance skills valuable in areas such as business, government, world affairs, media, education, and ecology. It will also offer students who are interested in pursuing further studies with the foundational tools necessary for graduate work in preparation for careers in university teaching, research, and international public policy. In this age of globalization, the minor in African Studies offers students the knowledge needed to better understand and relate to a part of the world that has contributed and continues to contribute much to world culture and civilization.

Required Course (3 hours)

PS 4180 African Politics

Any two (6 hours) of the following:

ANTH 3514 Peoples and Cultures of Africa
GEOG 3470 Geography of Africa
HIST 4430 Sub-Saharan Africa

Electives (9 hours)

Students must distribute coursework across three or more disciplines. A student may take no more than six (6) hours toward the minor in a single department. (Study Abroad programs or Special Topics courses dealing with Africa will not count toward this limit but will not exceed three (3) additional hours in a single discipline.) Students will take their remaining classes from among the following:

ART 4870 African Art
ECON 4470 Economic Development of the Third World
FREN 1010 Elementary French I
FREN 1020 Elementary French II
FREN 2010 Intermediate French I
FREN 2020 Intermediate French II
PORT 1010 Elementary Portuguese I
PORT 1020 Elementary Portuguese II
GEOG 3470 Geography of Africa
GS 2010 Introduction to Cross-Cultural Experiences
GS 3010 Field Experience and Study Abroad
(Approval of program director required)
HIST 3160 Study Abroad in Africa
(Approval of program director required)
HIST 4430 Sub-Saharan Africa
HIST 4810 History of Women in the Third World
PS 4260 The Political Status of Women in the World
PS 3210 International Relations
PS 3780 Study Abroad
(Approval by program director regarding the country of study required)
PS 4390 Special Topics in Political Science
(Approval by program director regarding the topic of study required)
ANTH 3514 Peoples and Cultures of Africa

African American Studies

Director: Adonijah Bakari, PH 280

See page 92 for additional information.

Aging Studies (See Gerontology)

Director: J. Brandon Wallace, TODD 330
See page 93 for additional information.

American Culture

Advisor: Susan E. Myers-Shirk, Department of History,
PH 281

The interdisciplinary minor in American Culture is intended for students who want to explore a variety of disciplines as a way of thinking about U.S. culture. This minor is ideal for students who have wide-ranging interests. It is also an excellent choice for students who are politically engaged and want to understand contemporary U.S. culture and its problems. It is especially suited for students who wish to highlight the liberal arts element of their education.

Required Courses (6 hours):

HIST 3040 Topics in American Cultural History OR
HIST 4740 American Cultural and Intellectual History
ENGL 3310 Nineteenth-Century American Literature OR
ENGL 3320 Twentieth-Century American Literature OR
ENGL 3360 Multicultural Literature of the United States

Additional Required Courses:

In addition to the core courses in history and English, students are required to take 12 semester hours of upper-division courses chosen in consultation with the minor advisor. Please see the advisor for a list of approved courses for the minor.

Archaeology

Advisor: Kevin E. Smith, Department of Sociology and Anthropology, TODD 313

The minor in Archaeology draws upon the resources of anthropology, geography and geology, and history to provide a comprehensive view of modern archaeological techniques, particularly in those disciplines involved with diachronic studies of human cultures. In consultation with the advisor and appropriate departmental advisors, students may pursue flexible elective tracks focusing on the application of archaeological methods and techniques in anthropology, geography, or history. The minor in Archaeology requires 18 credit hours, including 9 hours of required courses and 9 hours of general electives from the list below. Each student is required to take electives from at least two departments, and a selection from all three departments is encouraged.

Required Courses (9 hours):

ANTH 2210 Introduction to World Prehistory
ANTH 3610 Archaeological Methods OR
ANTH 4950 Archaeological Field School OR
HIST 4870 Field Course in Historical Archaeology
GEOG 4380 Cartography OR
GEOG 4490 Remote Sensing OR
GEOG 4530 Geographic Information Systems

Electives (choose 9 hours):

ANTH 2230 Tennessee Archaeology
ANTH 2240 Sunken Continents, Lost Tribes, and Ancient Astronauts
ANTH 3210 Archaeology
ANTH 3520 North American Prehistoric Archaeology
ANTH 3521 Mesoamerican Archaeology
ANTH 3610 Archaeological Methods
ANTH 3720 Environmental Anthropology
ANTH 4620 Environmental Archaeology
ANTH 4950 Archaeological Field School
GEOG 3720 Cultural Ecology
GEOG 4380 Cartography
GEOG 4490 Remote Sensing
GEOG 4530 Geographic Information Systems
GEOG 4540 Geography of Native Americans
GEOL 1040/1041 Physical Geology
GEOL 4020 Geomorphic Regions of the United States
HIST 3110 Explorations in Public History
ANTH/
HIST 4860 Historical Archaeology

Asian Studies

Advisor: Ida Leggett, Department of Sociology and Anthropology, TODD 317

The minor in Asian Studies is designed to provide students an opportunity to examine the cultures, economies, geography, histories, governments, philosophies, politics, and religions of Asia. The minor requires 18 semester hours within an interdisciplinary structure. All students pursuing the minor are required to take 6 hours from the core and 12 hours from the general electives. Directed readings, special topics, internships, or language instruction in any pertinent department may be pursued with prior approval of the minor advisor. No more than 6 hours of these courses may be counted towards the minor.

Core (6 hours):

ANTH 3510 Peoples and Cultures of Southeast Asia
GEOG 3440 Geography of Asia
PS 3310 Comparative Asian Governments
PHIL 3200 Asian Thought

Electives (12 hours):

Behavioral Research

See page 183 for additional information.

Business Administration

Advisor: Jill Austin, Department of Management and Marketing, BAS N121

The minor in Business Administration provides students with an overview of business. Business disciplines represented by the required courses in the minor include accounting, business law, computer information systems, finance, management, and marketing. The minor is designed for students who need a general knowledge of business as a foundation for work in their disciplines of study. A 2.00 GPA is required.

Required Courses (18 hours):

INFS	2200	Introduction to Microcomputing OR
	INFS	3100 Principles of Management Information Systems
ACTG	3000	Survey of Accounting for General Business OR
	ACTG	2110, 2120 Principles of Accounting I, II

	BLAW	3430 Commercial Law
MGMT	3610	Principles of Management
MKT	3820	Principles of Marketing

Classical Studies

Advisor: Louis Haas, Department of History, PH 263

The minor in Classical Studies is designed to increase students' knowledge of ancient Greece and Rome and of their continuing influence through the ages. Students are required to complete two courses of Intermediate Latin (2010 and 2020), for which the prerequisites are LATN 1010 and 1020 or equivalent. A placement test is available in the Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures.

Required courses (6 hours):

LATN	2010	Intermediate Latin I
LATN	2020	Intermediate Latin II

Electives (12 hours):

ENGL	3400	European Literature to 1400
ENGL	3410	Classical Mythology

Entertainment Technology

Advisor: Joseph Akins, Department of Recording Industry, COMM 260

The Entertainment Technology minor is designed for students who want either to broaden or to focus their knowledge of various technologies that support the entertainment industry. Students should consult with the minor advisor before enrolling in minor classes. Courses may not be used to complete major or other minor requirements as well. Courses taken to complete General Education requirements may be used to complete minor requirements. This minor requires a 2.00 GPA in all coursework. Students must complete 18 hours from the courses listed below. Some courses may have prerequisites.

84 Interdisciplinary Majors and Minors

Selection below is for non-Recording Industry majors. For Entertainment Technology minor requirements for Recording Industry majors, see Recording Industry on page 229.

Environment and Human Society

Advisor: Lynn Nelson, Department of History, PH 285

The interdisciplinary minor in Environment and Human Society helps students who want to explore their relationship with the natural world in ways other than advanced scientific research. Students taking this minor will have the opportunity to look at many different aspects of our attempts to understand and solve environmental problems. Classes are offered in anthropology, biology, English, environmental science and technology, geography, history, journalism, philosophy, and recreation and leisure services. Students considering pursuing a career focusing on environmental matters, those in the sciences hoping to broaden their understanding of environmental issues, or anyone interested in learning more about humanity's relationship with the environment should consider this minor.

The Environment and Human Society minor requires 18 semester hours from the following courses. Students may not count more than 6 hours in any one department, or more than 6 hours of classes offered through the College of Basic and Applied Sciences. Other specific requirements are explained below.

Environmental Science and Technology

Director: John DiVincenzo

Location: WPS 0100A

The minor in Environmental Science and Technology consists of 18 semester hours of courses chosen from the various concentrations including EST 2810 and at least 6 hours at the upper-division level.

Film Studies

Advisor: Robert Holtzclaw, Department of English, PH 332

An interdisciplinary minor in Film Studies is designed to enhance the educational opportunities available to students interested in learning about and through film. Courses in the minor focus on various issues connected to narrative, theory, style, and assorted social/cultural concerns.

To fulfill requirements for the minor, a student will complete 18 hours (six courses) from those listed below. No more than 9 hours (three courses) should be taken in any single department, and courses from at least three of the participating departments should be included in the 18-hour total.

Global Studies

Director: Douglas Heffington, PH 252

See page 93 for additional information.

Great Books

Advisor: Michael J. Neth, Department of English, PH 347

The Great Books interdisciplinary minor is designed to offer students the opportunity to broaden their undergraduate education and supplement their own major field by studying the most important and influential texts in a number of different disciplines. Students will be presented with the ways in which some of the most significant books ever written shaped, altered, and influenced the formation of human civilization.

The Great Books minor requires a minimum of 18 hours of courses, with the provision that no more than 6 hours may be taken in a single department. The program advisor may approve the substitution of courses under some circumstances.
