Department of Educational Leadership

James O. Huffman, Chair
Jones Hall 323

The Department of Educational Leadership offers the Specialist in Education degree (Ed.S.) and the Master of Education degree (M.Ed.) with majors in Administration and Supervision and Curriculum and Instruction. The Ed.S. in Administration and Supervision offers specializations in K-12 public schools and higher education.

The M.Ed. in Administration and Supervision offers a concentration in Library Science and specializations in K-12 public schools and higher education. The M.Ed. in Curriculum and Instruction offers a concentration in English as a Second Language. A graduate minor in Library Science is available.

Normally, for admission to the specialist’s or master’s programs, a satisfactory score on the Miller Analogies Test, the Graduate Record Examination, or the Praxis II National Teachers Examination (Principles of Learning and Teaching) is required.

Applicants for the Ed.S. and M.Ed. degrees should submit a completed application, transcripts, three letters of reference, and verification of test scores to the Graduate Office. Once the completed file is received in the department, an advisor is assigned and the file is reviewed by the Educational Leadership Graduate Admission Board. Students should consult an advisor to determine what courses to schedule each semester.

Students pursuing an M.Ed. or Ed.S. degree must be admitted to the program prior to the completion of 12 semester hours of credit.

Doctor of Arts Educational Component

The Doctor of Arts degree is offered by the Departments of Chemistry and History. Requirements are described under the appropriate departmental heading. The student should consult with the education advisor to determine education course schedules.
