NOTE: Fee adjustments for courses running for odd dates will be prorated per TBR policy. Fee exchanges are only allowed for classes dropped and added within the part of term on the same day. RODP courses do not exchange evenly with other courses when students drop/add on or after the first day of the term. The fee adjustment policy listed above for each part of term will be applied for a drop and add not within the same part of term. RaiderNet will be available until 6:00 p.m. on fee payment deadline dates.

Withdrawals from all Summer classes may be processed via the Add or Drop page on RaiderNet or at the Withdrawal Office, Cope 205B, (615) 898-2808.

Courses added after registration is finalized by fee payment or confirmation must be dropped before the 100% deadline in order for the student not to be charged for the course(s) if not registered for other courses.

*These represent Saturday, Sunday, or holiday deadlines.

The maximum credit hour load per part of term is listed; however, the total of all parts of term cannot exceed the maximum. Undergraduate students may not take more than 18 hours without special approval by the appropriate dean as determined by the student's major or the Academic Support Center for undeclared majors. The maximum load for graduate students is 12 hours. Overload forms must be approved by the appropriate graduate program advisor and the College of Graduate Studies for graduate students to take more than 12 hours.
