Finance Department Internship – Nashville Predators

The Nashville Predators offer full-time college students the opportunity to gain hands on experience and earn college credit at the same time! Predators’ internships make it possible for students to learn how a professional sports team operates on a daily basis. You will learn valuable skills in database management, lead generation, survey research, analytics, and ticketing as well as gain contacts and experiences to jump start a career in the wide world of sports!

Finance interns gain exposure to many aspects of the financial operations of the organization. The pursuit of an accounting or finance degree is preferred. The ideal candidate must have excellent communication skills, be professional, and be able to multi-task. Applicants must have proficient computer skills (particularly in Microsoft Word, Excel, and Outlook).
