SUPPORT DOCUMENTATION

System Requirements

Big Interview is a cloud-based service that runs on html5 in a Web browser. We support the following Web browsers running in Windows or Mac OS.

WEB BROWSER

Google Chrome v. 25 and higher (Although other browsers are supported, we highly recommend using Google Chrome for the best experience possible.)

Mozilla Firefox v. 18 and higher

Apple Safari v. 7 and higher

Microsoft Internet Explorer 10 and higher

OPERATING SYSTEM

On the OS-side, we support users running a minimum of Windows 7, or Mac OS X v10.9 ("Mavericks")

Your browser must be a stable release version, not an Alpha/Beta/Nightly/Development build. This applies to all browsers, regardless of operating system.

Make sure your computer meets or exceeds the minimum hardware requirements for your operating system (Windows or Mac OS X). See the Microsoft or Apple website for the requirements.

Keep in mind that 3rd party browser plugins (specifically adblockers and script-blockers) can interfere with your Big Interview experience.

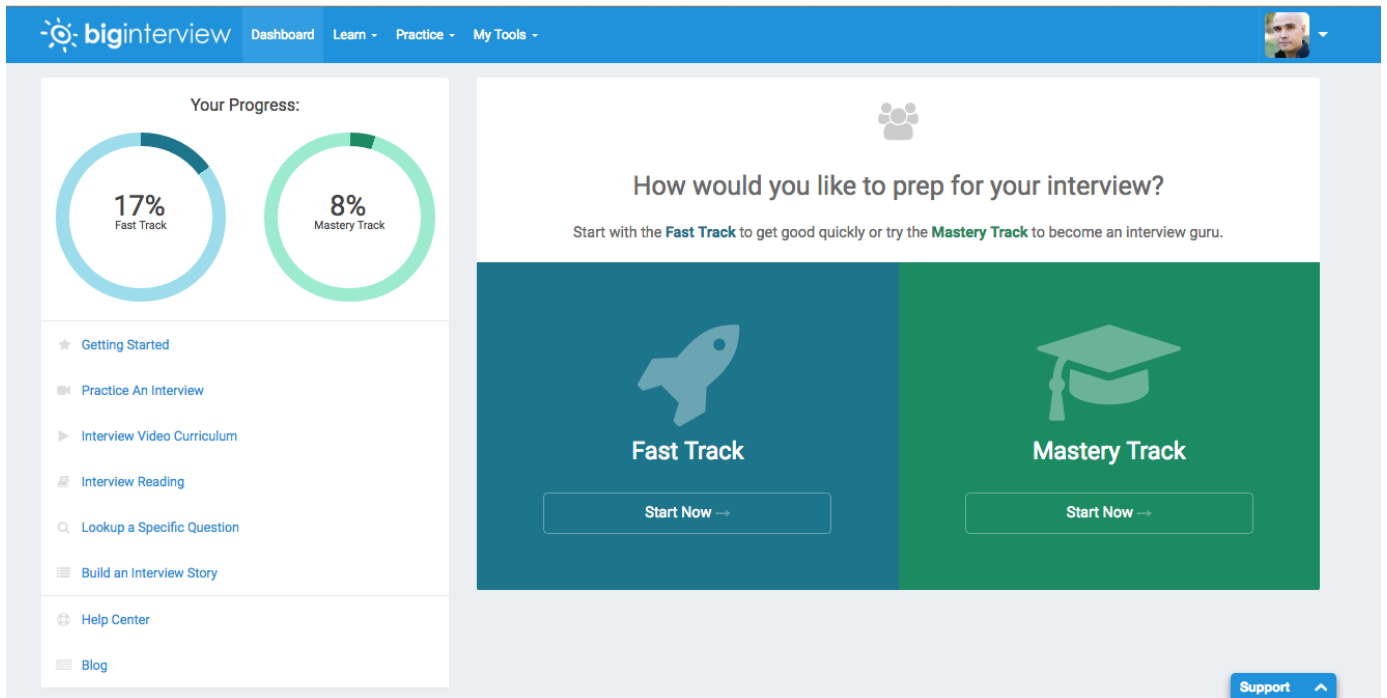

CONNECTION SPEED

For reliable video/audio recording, please make sure you have a consistent upload speed of at least 2Mbps.

To do a check of your connection, you can use SpeedTest.net

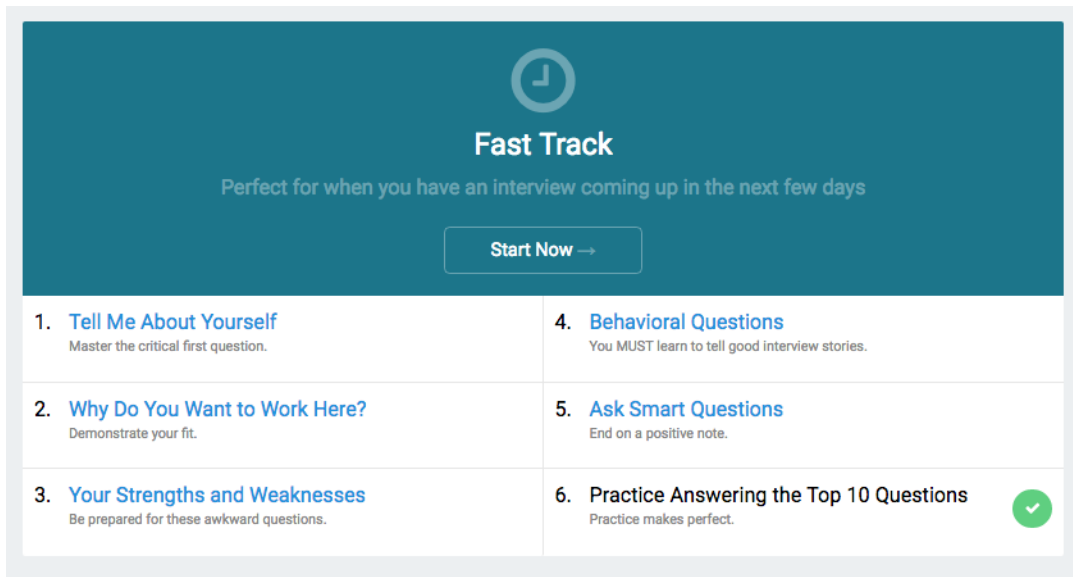

Dashboard Area

The Big Interview Dashboard is where you'll first start off after logging in.

Here you will notice two tracks developed specifically for the two most common interviewing scenarios.

1. FAST TRACK: If you're short on time and need to get better very quickly, the Fast Track is the best place to start.

2. MASTERY TRACK: If you have several weeks before your next interview (or no set date), then you may want to complete the Mastery Track. It's designed to turn you into an interview ace, and really help hone your skills.

Interview Training Area

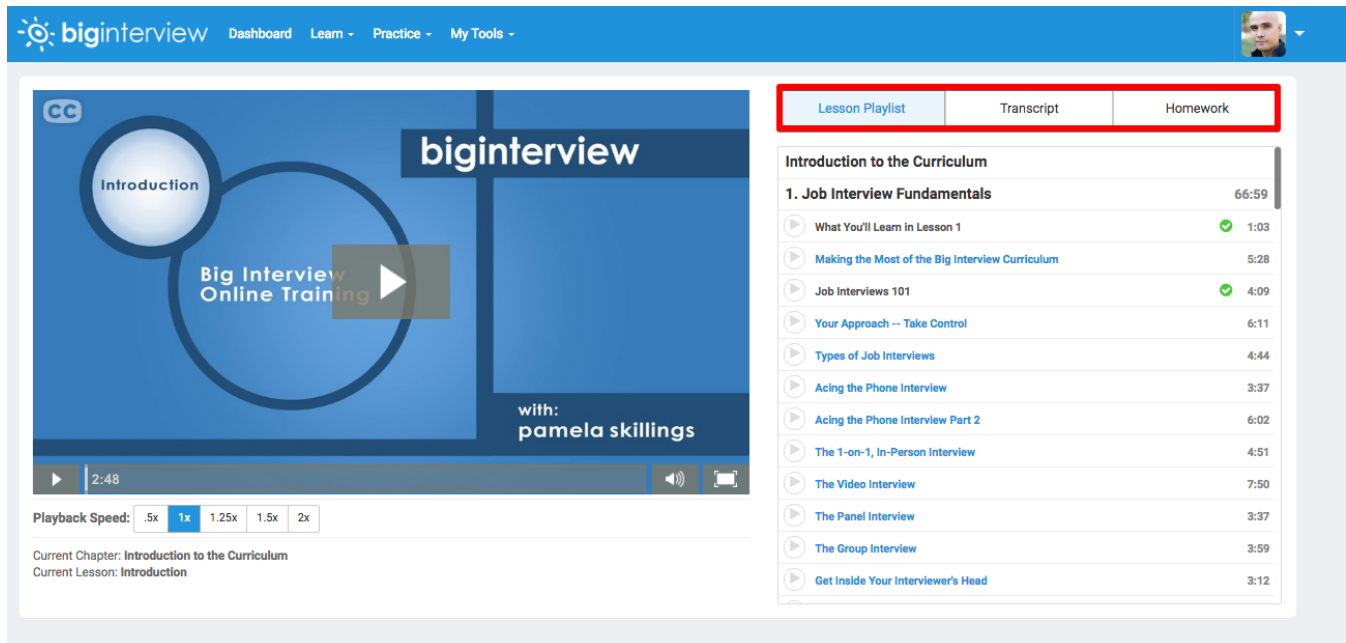

It's time to start learning those techniques that will land you your next job. In this article we'll briefly introduce you to the INTERVIEW TRAINING section.

In your navigation bar, click on LEARN.

You will now see two tabs. The first is the VIDEO CURRICULUM, which includes 10 video lessons covering all aspects of interviewing.

- Lesson 1 – Job Interview Fundamentals
- Lesson 2 – Job Interview Best Practices and Common Mistakes
- Lesson 3 – Mastering Nonverbal Communications
- Lesson 4 – Analyzing the Job Description
- Lesson 5 – Tell Me About Yourself
- Lesson 6 – Why Do You Want to Work Here?
- Lesson 7 – Behavioral Questions and Your Interview Stories
- Lesson 8 – Your Strengths and Weaknesses
- Lesson 9 – Where Do You See Yourself in Five Years?
- Lesson 10 – Ask Smart Questions

The second tab is the WRITTEN CURRICULUM, where you'll find a list of modules and within each module a list of written lessons.

The main WRITTEN CURRICULUM categories are:

- Module 1 – Interview Basics
- Module 2 – Resumes and Cover Letters
- Module 3 – Landing the Interview
- Module 4 – Informational Interviews
- Module 5 – Interview Prep
- Module 6 – Acing the Interview
- Module 7 – Follow Up
- Module 8 – Answering the Top Ten Questions
- Module 9 – Behavioral Interview Questions

Regardless if you're a seasoned interviewee or just starting out on your career, starting with the Interview Basics module is a smart decision.

To select a lesson, click on the lesson name. (In this example we'll start with Module 1 – Lesson 1: "The Value of a Proper Interview Education").

The whole section is designed to be pretty intuitive, just like typical online reading or video watching.

Practice Interview Area

This is where the rubber meets the road. Here you will be able to continually practice all kinds of interview questions until you come away a lean, mean interviewing machine.

Step 1: Click PRACTICE INTERVIEWS on your navigation bar.

You'll now see six main interview practice categories to choose from:

General Start Here

Covers 80% of the interview questions you might get.

By Industry

Start practicing mock interviews in hundreds of industries and job titles.

By Competency

Practice interview questions sorted by competency & skillset.

Admissions Interviews

Here you can practice interviews by program type and school.

Government

Practice interviews for a variety federal and state jobs.

Veterans

Practice interviews for some of the fastest growing jobs for veterans.

GENERAL - this section covers about 90% of the questions you're likely to get in a job interview.

BY INDUSTRY – here you'll be able to choose practice interviews from dozens of industries and job roles. This is NOT meant to replace the GENERAL interviews, but only to complement them by offering you some industry specific questions.

BY COMPETENCY – here you can choose from a variety of skill-sets and strengths your interviewer may be looking for in the right candidate.

ADMISSIONS INTERVIEWS – here you can practice interviews by program type and school, including undergrad, grad, business school, law school and med school.

GOVERNMENT – here you can practice interviews for a variety of federal and state jobs.

VETERANS – here you will find interviews for some of the fastest growing jobs for veterans.

Step 2: If you click GENERAL, you'll be taken directly to a list of interviewers tailored to a wide array of types of experience. Whether you're a C-Level exec wanting to polish up before meeting the board of directors, or you're still in school trying to line up an internship, there are interviews in the GENERAL section to serve just about everybody.

Support

If you click either BY INDUSTRY, BY COMPETENCY or ADMISSIONS INTERVIEWS, you'll be prompted to select the type of interview you're interested in.

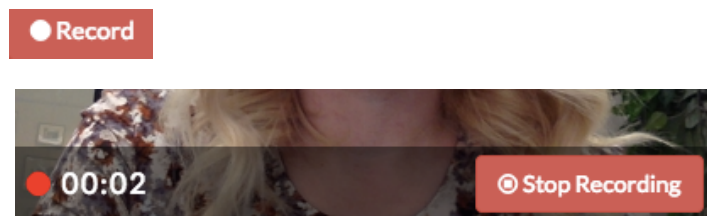

Step 3: Begin Your Mock Interview – click the PLAY button under your interviewer. This will begin playing an interview question.

To move to the next question you will click (as I'm sure you've guessed) "Next Question". Now let's take a brief look at the recording function.

Step 4: Recording & Reviewing – the recording buttons should be pretty self-explanatory:

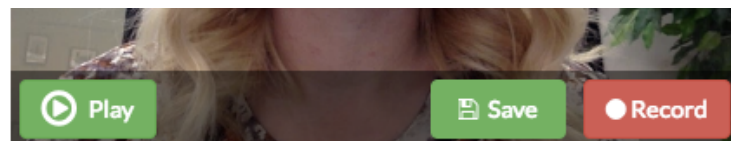

Record – to begin recording. There will be a 3 second countdown to give you a moment to prepare to answer.

▶ See your recorded answers in My Videos

Play - play back the answer you've just recorded for review.

Save – after recording an answer, you'll have the option of saving by clicking Save

▶ See your recorded answers in My Videos

Step 5: Visit MY VIDEOS to review your saved answers. Once an answer is saved you can do a lot with it including reviewing, rating and sharing.

Interview Roulette

The Interview Roulette is meant to help keep you on your toes by throwing random questions at you so you're forced to think on your feet.

It works in basically the same way as the typical interview in the Practice Interview Area. And just as in the Practice Interview module, all your recordings are saved in the My Videos section.

Question Library

This is the place to go when you want to work on problem questions. You'll be able to absorb some question-specific tips and also practice repeatedly (without having to go through a whole mock interview).

Step 1: Go to PRACTICE on your top navigation bar and then click Question Library.

Step 2: Here you'll see lists of categories and questions covering everything in Big Interview. You can search for a specific question or choose from general, industry, competency, or admissions questions.

Step 3: Choose the question or question set you would like to practice.

The screenshot shows the 'biginterview' website's 'Question Library'. The top navigation bar includes 'Dashboard', 'Learn', 'Practice', and 'My Tools'. The main content area is divided into a left sidebar and a main question list. The sidebar has a search bar and several filter categories: 'General' (with a play button icon and text 'Covers 80% of the interview questions you might get.'), 'Career Change', 'Entry Level', 'Internship', 'Managerial Role', 'Mid Level', 'Ridiculous Questions', 'Senior Level', 'Top 10 Questions', and 'Uncomfortable Questions'. Below these are 'By Industry' and 'By Competency' sections. The main question list is titled 'Entry Level > Level 1' and 'Entry Level > Level 2'. The first question in the Level 1 set is 'Thanks for coming in. I have your resume here. Can you just walk me through your background?'. A red arrow points to this question. Another red arrow points to the question 'Why did you choose the school that you attended?'. A red text box with the text 'Work on an entire set or pick and choose questions to practice' is overlaid on the list. A 'Practice This Set' button is visible for each category. A 'Support' button is in the bottom right corner.

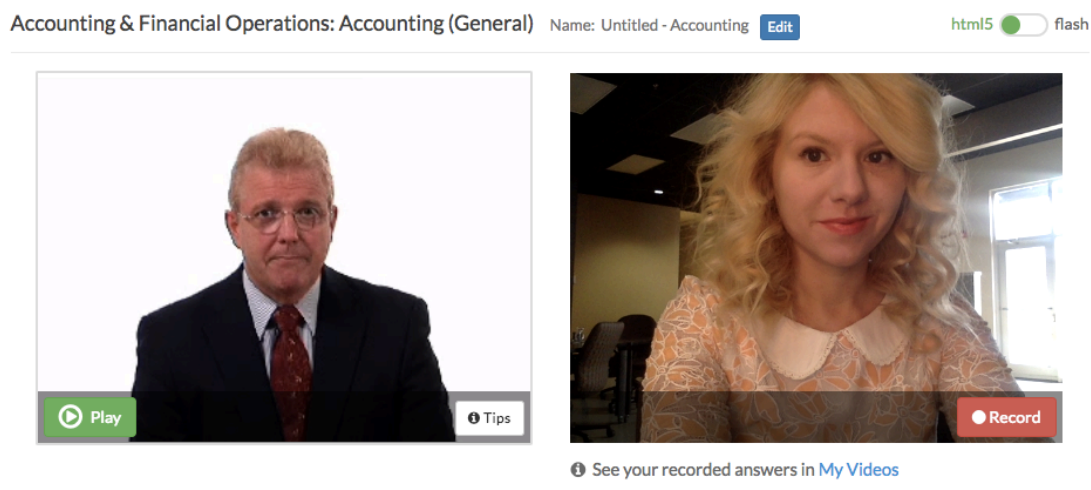

Step 4: After clicking on one of the questions, you'll see relevant tips and even example answers. And if you're feeling bold enough, you can directly launch the actual question itself in the mock interview module.

This screenshot shows the detailed view of a question from the 'biginterview' website. The question is 'Thanks for coming in. I have your resume here. Can you just walk me through your background?'. Below the question, there are tags: 'Entry Level', 'Accomplishments', 'General', 'Skills', and 'Experience'. The question is repeated in orange text. Below that, there is a paragraph of text explaining the question: 'This is a very common opening question – a variation on the more open-ended, "Tell me about yourself." Even if the interviewer asks the question this way, he really doesn't want a 20-minute soliloquy on every job you've ever had. You'll want to concisely walk through your work history, starting with your most recent (and presumably most relevant) experience. Include only the most relevant details. You'll have a chance to go into more depth as the interview progresses (assuming that you don't put the interviewer to sleep with a long-winded history of your life). You don't have to go all the way back to your college years (though you should if you haven't been in the work force long). Keep your response focused on background most pertinent to the job opportunity.' Below this is an 'Example Answer:' section with a paragraph of text: '"For the last three years, I have been in charge of HR communications for XYZ Company. In this role, I manage a team of 3 people and we handle all benefits and policy communications to a staff of 8,000 employees. Prior to that, I worked as a human resources generalist at PDQ Inc., where I gained experience in all areas of the human resources function and was promoted twice in two years."' Below the example answer is a button that says 'Click here to practice the question in our mock interview module'. Below the button are two more questions: 'Why are you interested in working for this company?' and 'Why are you interested in this particular job?'. A 'Practice This Set' button is visible in the top right corner.

My Videos

Here we'll learn about a few of the ways to review your recorded answers.

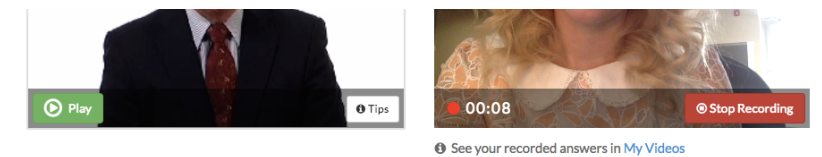

Step 1: In the Practice Interview section when you're recording, you'll see something like this:

Step 2: When you're recording your interview answers, you'll notice that below your webcam feed there is initially just one RECORD button. Once you've recorded an answer, two new buttons show up, the PLAY and SAVE button.

Step 3: After you hit the RECORD button, a 3-second countdown will start (giving you a couple moments to get ready).

When recording has begun, you will see the word "RECORDING" on your webcam feed and you should see a white line flicker to let you know your voice is recording also. You will also see a big STOP button that allows you to end your recording.

Step 4: After hitting STOP, you'll notice you have the options to PLAY your response, SAVE or RECORD another response.

Now you have a few choices to play with. You can click PLAY to review your video. If you don't like your recording simply click RECORD to try again. Or if you're satisfied with it, click SAVE to save your recording to the My Videos. You can then either record more answers to the same question, or you can move on to the next question.

Step 5: You can review, share, or rerecord an answer in the My Videos section. To get to My Videos, click on MY TOOLS and then click on My Videos.

Note: In My Videos sharing can be done in one of two ways. You can share an individual video by simply clicking on the blue SHARE button or you can multiple videos by clicking the "check-box" next to each video, and then clicking the SHARE SELECTED button at the top of the page.

Share these urls with anyone you want to view your recorded answers.

Sharing Videos with a Counselor or Instructor

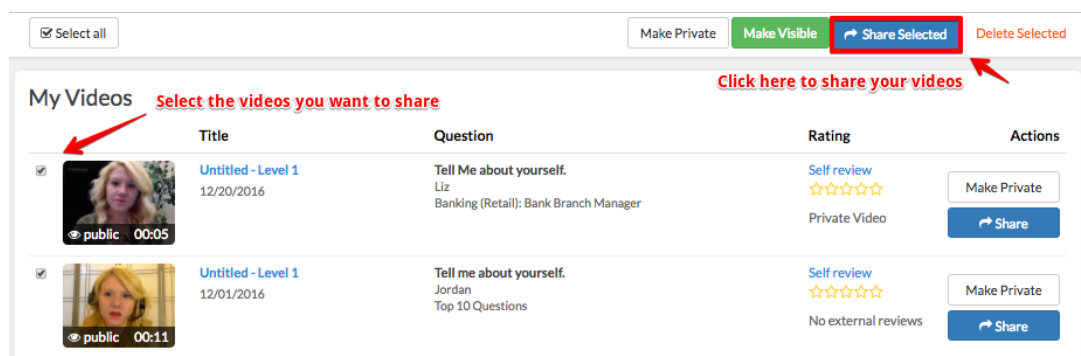

By default, the videos you record using Big Interview are private, however, in order to improve your skills, it's likely that your counselor or instructor will want to give you feedback on your videos.

The sharing function allows you to give anyone access to your videos to give you feedback, regardless of whether they have a Big Interview account or not.

1. From the Dashboard, click on "My Videos".

2. You will see a list of the videos you have saved. Select the videos you would like to share and click "Share Selected".

3. Select someone from within your organization OR

The screenshot shows a blue header bar with the text "Share Several" and a close button (X). Below the header are two tabs: "Share within your organization" (which is selected and highlighted in blue) and "Share via email". Under the "Share within your organization" tab, there is a "Select" dropdown menu with "Select..." as the current selection. A red arrow points to the dropdown arrow. Below the dropdown is a "Notes" text area with the red text "select someone from within your organization" inside it. At the bottom right of the dialog is a green "Share" button.

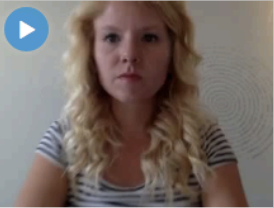

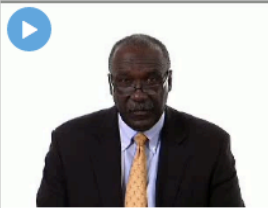

Select "Share via email" to share with someone outside your organization.

The screenshot shows the "Share Several" dialog box with the "Share via email" tab selected and highlighted with a red box. Below the tabs, the text "Share these urls with anyone you want to view your recorded answers." is displayed. A list of three items follows, each with a question and a URL: "1. How does your work experience relate to this job? https://app.biginterview.com/s/17f9cc9b0b", "2. Describe a recent written report or presentation that you worked on. https://app.biginterview.com/s/dbfcef9d05", and "3. Tell me about yourself. https://app.biginterview.com/s/a43483d6e7". Below this list is the text "You can either copy the text to your clipboard, or use the email function below." Underneath is the label "E-mail the following people:" followed by a text input field containing "mentor@helpful.com". A red arrow points to the input field with the red text "Enter an email address to share your videos" below it. At the bottom is a "Your message:" text area and a green "Send email" button.

Creating Custom Interview Sets

It's easy to create a custom set of interviews for your students to practice. You must be designated as an administrator by your organization to create custom sets. If you need admin access, simply contact career services at your school (or the main contact for your organization).

1. From the admin view, click on Custom Sets.
2. Click the green button that says "New Custom Sets"

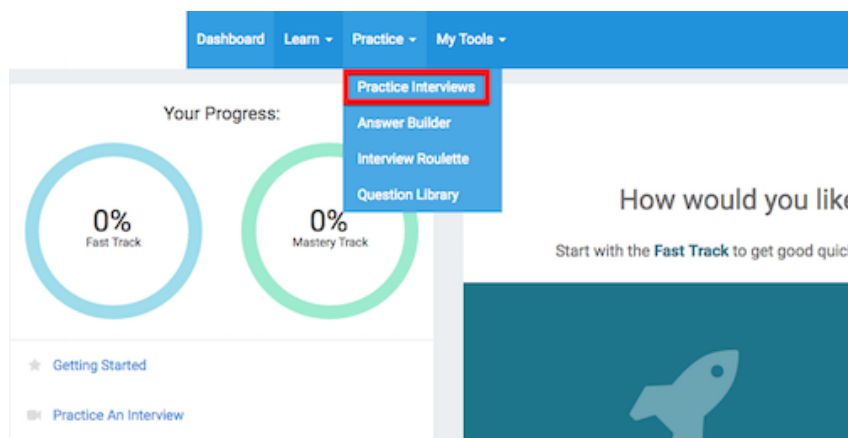

Now you will see the Custom Set Editor.

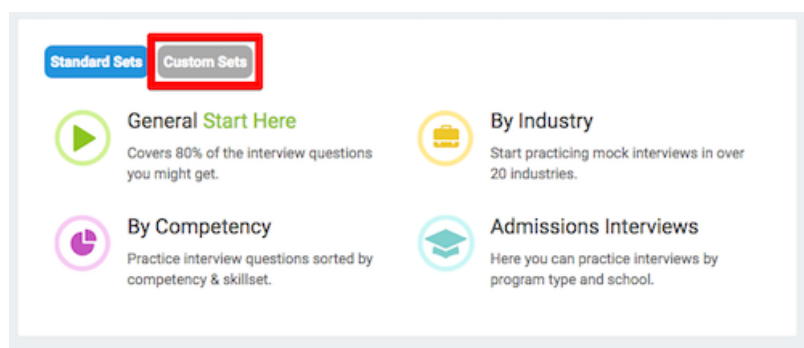

3. Select the question category you would like to choose from. You can choose multiple categories (general, by industry, by competency, admissions interview, custom questions, etc.).
4. Click on the question to add it to your custom set.
5. Click the arrow to reorder.
6. Name your custom set and Click "Save".

The screenshot shows the 'Custom Set Editor' interface. At the top, there are tabs for 'General', 'By Industry', 'By Competency', and 'Admissions Interview'. A red arrow points to the 'By Competency' tab with the text 'Choose question category here'. Below the tabs, there are several question categories: 'Analytical Skills', 'Calm Under Pressure', 'Creativity', and 'Decision Making'. Under 'Analytical Skills', there are two questions with green checkmarks: 'Describe a situation in which you took on new responsibilities with little direction or training.' and 'What steps do you take to analyze a problem?'. A red arrow points to the second question with the text 'Click the questions you want to add to your custom set.'. On the right side, there is a 'Custom Set Name *' field containing 'Marketing-Entry Level'. A red arrow points to this field with the text 'Name your set, click and drag to reorder, and click "save" when you are finished.'. Below the name field is a list of seven questions, each with a small 'x' icon to its right. At the bottom right, there is a blue 'Save' button.

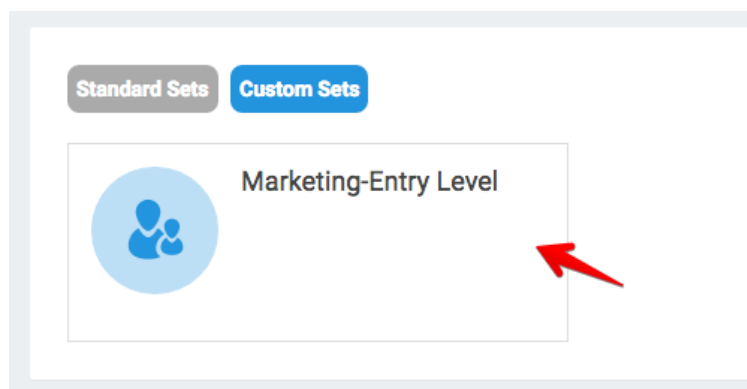

7. In order to view your custom set, navigate to the user view (Back to Big Interview) and click on "Practice Interviews" from the Dashboard.

8. In addition to the Standard Sets, you will now see a tab for Custom Sets.

9. Click on Custom Sets and you will see the sets you have created. This is where you will direct students in order to practice your Custom Sets.
