

Global Studies and Human Geography Internships

Whether you major or minor in Global Studies/Human Geography, an internship can provide hands-on experience to confirm or reject career choices, develop useful career building skills, show potential employers evidence of the ability to apply skills in a related work environment and make you more attractive for employers and graduate schools.

Four Easy Steps to Register for an Internship

- 1- Talk to your GS+HG faculty adviser about where an internship can fit into your program, and the type of internship placement that would be best for your career goals.
- 2- Find a good internship placement that will help you achieve your goals (see the GS+HG 'Internship Handbook,' available at <https://www.mtsu.edu/globalstudies/index.php>, for tips on finding a placement.
- 3- Complete the application form on the reverse side of this sheet.
- 4- After confirming the internship placement, the Department will email you the POD and CRN needed to register.
