Spacing

- Text must be double-spaced, single-sided
- Double space after the chapter/section number and after the chapter/section title
- Double space before and after centered headings within the text
- Triple space before and after tables/figures inserted between text
- Table data, long quotations (40 words or 4 lines or more), and reference listings may be single-spaced. Long quotations should be blocked.

Tables/Figures

- Tables/figures may follow page on which they are first referenced, or they may be included in a separate appendix
- Table/figure must be identified in the text by a number
- Table number and title must be typed above table; use Arabic numerals
- Figure number and caption must be typed below figure; use Arabic numerals
- Repeat table number and column headings if table is continued on another page
- If table/figure is taken from another source, you must cite that source below the table/figure

Miscellaneous:

- Do not use running heads on each page
- No widow or orphans. This means that when beginning a new paragraph at the bottom of the page, you must have two lines; if only one line appears, move that line to the top of the next page – or if a paragraph ends at the top of the page, you must have two lines; if only one line appears, move an additional line from the bottom of the previous page
- All page numbers in the Table of Contents, List of Figures, List of Tables, etc. must correspond with page numbers in the text
- All footnotes begin on the page where they are cited
- Footnotes are renumbered beginning with Arabic numeral "1" for each chapter
- Chapter headings should appear in all capital letters in Roman numerals
- Italicize all statistical expressions, ($F, N, SD, M, SS, n, p, r, t$, etc.)
- Space before and after equal sign (=), less-than sign (<), and more-than sign (>)
- Space before and after periods in ellipsis (...)
- Always use the percentage sign (%) when preceded by a number
- Indent number and flush any subsequent lines with the left margin when listing separate paragraphs in a series (i.e., seriations or enumerations)
