Pursuant to 34 CFR §668.43, Middle Tennessee State University (MTSU) provides the following disclosure related to the educational requirements for professional licensure and certification necessary for employment in Tennessee.

The Bachelor of Science in Interior Architecture (BS Interior Architecture) in the College of Behavioral and Health Sciences is accredited by the Council for Interior Design Accreditation (CIDA). Admission to the program does not guarantee that students will pass the National Council for Interior Design Qualification Examination (NCIDQ Examination) or obtain licensure, certification, or registration. The educational requirements to sit for the NCIDQ Examination are a baccalaureate or higher degree and at least 60 semester hours in interior design. Successful program completion meets the educational requirements. Currently, Tennessee does not issue a license for interior design; however, the state does require an earned degree in interior design accredited by CIDA and passage of the NCIDQ Examination in order to apply to use the title "Registered Interior Designer."

The table on page two of this disclosure indicates the states and territories where MTSU has determined, through reasonable, good faith effort, that the BS Interior Architecture does or does not meet the educational requirements to sit for the NCIDQ Examination and obtain licensure or registration as an Interior Designer where required. Licensing authorities for each state set and enforce their own requirements and standards, which are subject to change. State requirements may include additional and recurring requirements, such as an application, supervision, examinations, continuing education, fees, fingerprinting, a background check, etc. Licensure may be eligible for reciprocity in other states. Reciprocity is not automatic; therefore, MTSU strongly recommends that prospective and current students not located in Tennessee or who plan to seek licensure or certification outside the state of Tennessee consult the Council for Interior Design Qualification regulated jurisdiction requirements and contact the appropriate state licensing agency or board before enrolling in the BS Interior Architecture. Students should discuss their plans with an advisor to ensure they have the most up-to-date information and guidance regarding licensure or registration requirements.
