College of Liberal Arts Scholarships for Study Abroad

In an effort to encourage students to participate in one of the many MTSU Signature study abroad programs, the College of Liberal Arts will offer several scholarships of up to $1000 each for faculty-led study abroad activities taking place during the Summer Sessions and Fall semester of 2020.

Eligibility:

1) Student must have a declared major in Liberal Arts.
2) Undergraduate students must have completed 30 hours prior to the semester in which the award will be made, with at least 15 of those hours earned at MTSU. Graduate students must have completed 9 hours prior to the semester in which the award will be made, with all 9 hours earned at MTSU.
3) Student must have a GPA >= 2.5.
4) Student must be participating in a faculty-led study abroad program.
5) Applicants should submit the following electronically to cla@mtsu.edu:
   a. A letter, which includes the student’s M#, outlining eligibility requirements 1-3 above, describing the activity for which the student is requesting support, indicating the economic necessity of the scholarship, and noting how the activity will contribute to the student’s professional development or plan of study (maximum length of three pages),
   b. a budget, listing costs and all other anticipated funding (except student loans),
   c. a letter of recommendation from a Liberal Arts faculty member or advisor emailed from the recommender to cla@mtsu.edu

Deadlines:
The deadline for Summer/Fall 2020 study abroad scholarship applications is Friday, February 7, 2020. Your application, including letter of recommendation, must be received no later than noon on that date to receive scholarship consideration.
