Pennsylvania State University
Department of Philosophy
240 Sparks Building
University Park, PA 16802

Program Benefits

- Workshops designed to develop critical reading skills.
- One-on-one meeting with faculty focused on strengthening philosophical writing.
- Develop mentoring relationships with faculty members and graduate students at Penn State's Philosophy Department.
- Opportunity to visit one of the most diverse philosophy departments in the country.

This publication is available in alternative media on request. Penn State encourages qualified persons with disabilities to participate in its programs and activities. If you anticipate needing any type of accommodation or have questions about the physical access provided, please consult Emily Slimak (814-863-5852) in advance of your participation or visit.

Penn State is an equal opportunity, affirmative action employer, and is committed to providing employment opportunities to all qualified applicants without regard to race, color, religion, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, disability or protected veteran status. U.Ed.

June 9 - 14, 2019

"PROMOTING PROMISING YOUNG PHILOSOPHERS"
Program Description

This workshop will be held in the summer for undergraduates who are normally in their second or third year of study and are considering pursuing a career in Philosophy. Students will be brought to Penn State for a week to attend seminars designed to cultivate the skill sets necessary to excel in the field of Philosophy. This program is intended to increase diversity and representation in the discipline.

Want to APPLY?

Please visit: https://sites.psu.edu/cusp/ for more information

Thanks to a generous grant from the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation, all participant’s travel, food, and residential expenses will be covered.

Please direct any questions to Dr. Robert Bernasconi

e-mail: CUSP@psu.edu

Application Criteria

- Contact Information
- Demographics
- Education Information
- Unofficial Transcripts
- Awards and Recognitions
- Extracurricular Activities
- Writing Sample (12 pages max)
- Personal Statement (500 words)
- One Reference Letter

Application Due: April 1, 2019