

The Harry J. Horne Scholarship

Political Science Department
Major in International Relations

Background: The Harry J. Horne Scholarship has been established in honor of the legendary former Canadian diplomat and specialist in international relations who taught at Middle Tennessee State University from 1983 to 1990.

Purpose: To promote and encourage study of foreign affairs.

Applicants: The scholarship recipient must have graduated from a Tennessee high school and be majoring in International Relations and/or Global Studies at MTSU.
Recipients must have a 3.0 grade point average in high school or college work. If the recipient is an incoming freshman, he or she must have scored a 25 or higher on the ACT.
The scholarship award is for one academic year.

Returned Information: Materials to be included:

1. High school or college transcript
2. ACT scores
3. Recommendation from two high school teachers or college professors (to be mailed separately)
4. Completed application form (see reverse side of this announcement)

Applications: Please complete the following instructions and mail all requested materials to:
Dr. Stephen Morris
Department of Political Science, Box 29
Middle Tennessee State University
1301 E. Main Street
Murfreesboro, TN 37132

Deadline: All applications must be postmarked by April 1.

Application Form

Harry J. Horne Scholarship

1. Name _____

2. Home address _____

3. Phone _____

4. Birth date _____

5. Name and address of parent of guardian _____

6. High school attended _____

7. Principal's name _____

8. High school honors, hobbies, clubs, and interests _____

9. In 200 words or less, express why you are interested in the study of foreign affairs and your career goals.
(Use additional sheet if necessary.)

Signature _____ Date _____