TALK TO FACULTY MEMBERS—OFTEN

- Talk to your individual professors any time you have any issues, problems or questions—they want to help you.

- Talk to your faculty adviser at least once a semester—they want to help you stay on track for graduation and can help you plan a career.

GAIN VALUABLE EXPERIENCE FOR YOUR FUTURE CAREER

The Department offers a wide range of opportunities for students to both earn credits toward graduation and gain valuable real-world experiences for your future career.

- PS 4290: Public Service Internship
- PS 4270: Political Campaign Internship
- PS 4040: Pre-Law Internship
- PS 4310: Tennessee Legislative Internship
- PS 4280: Washington Internship
- PS 2100: Mock Trial
- PS 2110: Moot Court
- PS 2120: Mediation Procedure
- PS 2130: Model U.N.
- PS 4970: Undergraduate Research
- PS 4950: Community Based Research

All of these opportunities can be taken as a part of your major. But, you should seriously consider the unique Political and Civic Engagement (POCE) minor.

The POCE minor will build far more of these opportunities and experiences into your college experience, and ensure you are better prepared for your professional career after graduating.

Talk to your adviser about the POCE minor.
Stay Informed and Stay Connected

Students who are the most successful—in their courses, graduating on time, finding jobs and developing careers in the field, getting into law school and graduate school, and just getting the most out of their college years—are those that stay informed about all of the opportunities and events they can take advantage of, and stay connected to the Department and other students.

Please use these resources to both stay informed and stay connected—and succeed.

GAIN VALUABLE EXPERIENCE FOR YOUR FUTURE CAREER

The Department offers a wide range of opportunities for students to both earn credits toward graduation and gain valuable real-world experiences for your future career.

- PS 4290: Public Service Internship
- PS 4270: Political Campaign Internship
- PS 4040: Pre-Law Internship
- PS 4310: Tennessee Legislative Internship
- PS 4280: Washington Internship
- PS 2100: Mock Trial
- PS 2110: Moot Court
- PS 2120: Mediation Procedure
- PS 2130: Model U.N.
- PS 4970: Undergraduate Research
- PS 4950: Community Based Research

All of these opportunities can be taken as a part of your major. But, you should seriously consider the unique Political and Civic Engagement (POCE) minor.

The POCE minor will build far more of these opportunities and experiences into your college experience, and ensure you are better prepared for your professional career after graduating.

Talk to your adviser about the POCE minor.
Students who are the most successful—in their courses, graduating on time, finding jobs and developing careers in the field, getting into law school and graduate school, and just getting the most out of their college years—are those that stay informed about all of the opportunities and events they can take advantage of, and stay connected to the Department and other students.

Please use these resources to both stay informed and stay connected—and succeed.
