

SHANNON, REV. F.B.
VIDEO

96-001

Physical Description:

1 ½-inch VHS tape (VCH-0207).

Dates:

November 22, 1995

Provenance:

Tape of performance was filmed by Park Ranger Wayne Ingram at Cedars of Lebanon State Park.

Agency History/biographical sketch:

Reverend F.B. Shannon, a blind African-American guitarist and singer is the pastor of a Baptist church near Cedars of Lebanon State Park. This performance took place at Cedars of Lebanon State Park on November 22, 1995.

Scope and content:

This taped performance consists of songs and discussion about Shannon's past. Songs include "Death Come A-Creepin'," "Farther Along," "In the Pines," "John Henry," and "I'll Fly Away." For a complete list of songs, see the following video log.

Location:

Filed by VCH-number and located with audiovisual manuscript materials.

ems

10/12/06