

Fifth Year Interim Report Committee, 2020-2022

Called committee, charged by Dr. McPhee to operate for two years.

This committee will prepare the required narratives and supporting materials for compliance with SACSCOC-mandated standards, including the QEP Impact Report. The committee is charged to:

- Establish and maintain a timeline for submission of all required materials to SACSCOC by March 1, 2022
- Review all required SACSCOC Fifth-Year standards and related SACSCOC policies
- Determine how the University complies with the required SACSCOC standards and policies for continuous quality improvement
- Identify gaps or compliance concerns and recommend actions needed to resolve those issues
- Organize and support site visits to new off-campus instructional sites
- Prepare draft narratives and gather supporting evidence required for each component of the Fifth-Year Interim Report
- Establish internal and external peer review processes to ensure quality, accuracy, and integrity
- Communicate the significance of the Fifth-Year Interim Report and provide regular updates to University constituencies
