

SGA Bill 2-13-F

A bill to guide the pairing of Freshman Council members to Senate mentors.

Whereas: Mentors can assist Freshman Council member's transition into a productive college experience.

Whereas: Mentors can offer mentees insight regarding the functions of Senate.

Whereas: Pairing freshman council members with mentors who have common academic majors and interests is conducive to the success of the mentor/mentee SGA experience.

THEREFORE, LET IT BE RESOLVED BY THE 76th CONGRESS OF THE STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION OF MIDDLE TENNESSEE STATE UNIVERSITY THAT:

Section 1: The Executive Vice President of SGA shall oversee the pairing of Senate mentors with Freshman Council mentees.

Section 2: Freshman council mentees are to be paired with mentors to the best of the Executive Vice-Presidents ability.

Section 3: The SGA Executive Vice President reserves the right to remove Senators from the position of Freshman Council mentor if they fail to fulfill the role of mentor and appoint a replacement Senate mentor.

Section 4: Senators are not required to participate in the Freshman Council mentor program. If no senators are willing to participate in the program, the Executive Vice President will appoint senators to be mentors.
