IMPACT DATA FORM for PROPOSED CHANGES

Department or Program or University Office: University Studies Department

Brief Statement of Proposed Change: Reading Placement Transfer/DE Students Date: 2/27/2018

1. Detailed discussion of how proposed changes may impact students, prospective students, university programs and/or other. (Use as much space as you need below. You may refer to cover memo and its attachments as needed to avoid repetition.)

Students may potentially have one required course added. Please see Attachment A.

2. Identify the student population(s) that will be affected.

Students with dual enrollment and freshman transfer credit will be affected if they have ACT reading sub scores below 19 and they are not bringing in one or more of the course with the prefixes designated by the University which waive the reading requirement. See Attachment A.

3. Are there plans to make this proposal retroactive? If so, please indicate when (specify the date) and identify student population(s) who will be affected. (For example, “students admitted under the 2004 catalog or earlier.”)

There are no plans to make this policy retroactive.

4. Discuss the specific impact on students. Provide enrollment and/or other relevant data for the past three years, including appropriate demographic data (e.g. male, female, minority, part-time, older students etc.) to illustrate the possible impact on specific groups. (For example, for a proposal to raise the GPA for graduation, provide a breakdown of graduating student GPA by different demographic groups.) Attach supporting documentation.

Although transfer students come in with various college credits signifying their classification, this policy change will most likely affect freshman transfer and newly admitted students with dual enrollment credit. Please refer to Attachment B to see freshman demographic information over the last three years. The records of each of these students will be examined in light of this policy.

Reading Placement Proposal Rationale

Current Policy

Students admitted to the University with valid ACT Reading sub scores of 18 or less are placed in READ 1000K, a prescribed reading course designed to help students master additional reading skills needed to be successful academically. Students in this category are also given the option to test out with the University Assessment. Non-traditional students without ACT scores take the University Assessment Test designed to identify students who need similar assistance in reading.

Under TBR written guidelines, students who transferred in a reading intensive course were waived from the reading requirement. However, if they had not successfully completed a course of this nature, they had to be tested or if they had valid ACT scores, they would be placed accordingly.

Even though this was the written policy, this has not been carried out in practice. Teresa Thomas has indicated the mod that came from TBR electronically waived the reading requirement for any student transferring in any college-level course. This means students transferring in a math course, physical education course, etc. had the reading requirement waived. Now that the University offers more dual enrollment courses, more high school students are being admitted with one or two courses which are not reading intensive, but the requirement is being waived.

There are many MTSU Gen Ed courses that have READ 1000K as a prerequisite, which indicates that the departments think it is important that the reading skills of their students need to be at a certain level to optimize the chances for successful course completion. This practice of waiving the reading requirement when transferring in any college-level course is in conflict with the set prerequisite requirements for these Gen Ed courses.

Proposed Policy

The University, no longer under TBR, can make efforts to better adopt guidelines to provide consistency in satisfying prerequisites from students bringing in course work. From a meeting with Laurie Witherow, Teresa Thomas, and Dean Sluder, the suggestion was offered to link the ability to have the requirement waived to certain course prefixes as opposed to specific courses. Using the Gen Ed list as a guide, the following prefixes are suggested to remove the reading requirement automatically:

ASTR
BIOL
CHEM
DANC
ECON
GEOG
GEOL
HIST
HUM
PHIL
PHYS
PSCI
PSY
SOC
WGST

Note: Students who do not receive a reading waiver will continue to be offered the option to test out.
