Middle Tennessee State University

Winter Session
Registration and Other Fees

All fees are subject to change by the Board of Trustees. Charges for all coursework will be assessed at the STUDENT level. The University reserves the right to correct errors in student fee assessments and charges discovered after initial billings or fee statements.

Winter session courses are part of the Spring Semester, are charged per hour, and do not count toward the full-time maximum when combined with Spring term credit hours.

Note: Winter Session courses DO NOT even exchange with Spring term courses unless the Winter course is dropped during the 100% fee adjustment period.

Please refer to https://www.mtsu.edu/registration/winter.php for Winter Session FAQs.
