Courses in the Department of English meet the General Education needs of all students through the development of verbal and written communication skills and the appreciation of literature. A major program is offered for students preparing to teach English in secondary schools, for students planning to enter law school, for students wishing to develop proficiency in some subject in the department, and for students preparing for graduate study. One may earn a Bachelor of Arts degree with a major in English or a Bachelor of Arts with a concentration in Secondary English Teacher Licensure. A minor in English is also offered.

The University does not recommend any student for licensure in English who has not satisfied requirements set by the College of Education and Behavioral Science for post-baccalaureate endorsement. Those planning to get a professional license to teach English must be advised by the associate chair of the English Department regarding courses to be taken.

The English Department participates in interdisciplinary minors in African American Studies, American Culture, Classical Studies, Early Modern European Studies, Environment and Human Society, Film Studies, Great Books, Linguistics, Medieval Studies, Native American Studies, Southern Studies, Twentieth-Century European Studies, Women's Studies, and Writing. See page 76 for a listing of interdisciplinary minors with their coordinating departments.

Before beginning the junior year, the student should file a degree plan with his or her advisor. For 3000- and 4000-level courses, there is normally a prerequisite of 9 semester hours of English.

General Requirements

A minimum of 9 semester hours in General Education composition and literature is required of all students for graduation. Students complete this requirement by taking ENGL 1010 and 1020 in sequence and ENGL 2020, ENGL 2030, or HUM 2610.

Students must pass ENGL 1010 and 1020 in sequence before taking ENGL 2020 or 2030 or HUM 2610. A minimum grade of C- in ENGL 1010 and 1020 is required to receive credit.

All first-time freshmen must take the ACT or SAT and have their scores reported to MTSU as part of the application procedure. On the basis of the ACT or SAT scores, MTSU will exempt students with credit from ENGL 1010 and 1020, place students in ENGL 1010, or require further testing as a basis for placement decisions. Placement decisions will be based on the following scores:

Enhanced ACT English score of 19-31: Placement in ENGL 1010
Enhanced ACT English score of 32 or greater: Exemption from ENGL 1010 and 1020 with credit

Enhanced ACT Composite Score of 18 or below: Must undergo further testing (See page 91, Developmental Studies.)

Enhanced ACT English Score of 18 or below: Must undergo further testing (See page 91, Developmental Studies.)

SAT Verbal Score of 460-710: Placement in ENGL 1010 and 1020

SAT Verbal Score of 720 or greater: Exemption from ENGL 1010 and 1020 with credit

SAT Verbal Score of 450 or below: Must undergo further testing (See page 91, Developmental Studies, and page 33.)

Students also may be exempt from ENGL 1010 with credit by scoring 3 or better on the CEEB or by scoring satisfactorily on CLEP exams (see page 31). Students may earn credit for ENGL 2030 by scoring satisfactorily on CLEP exams (see page 32).

If a student takes an examination for advanced placement credit in General Education English more than once, the most recent score will determine the student's status.

All international students whose first language is not English must take a diagnostic test to place them in the right English class. ESL students who are not ready for ENGL 1010 will be required to take ENGL 1040 before enrolling in ENGL 1010.

All students will complete the required 9 semester hours of English General Education by passing the following courses in the sequence in which they are listed.

1. ENGL 1010
2. ENGL 1020
3. ENGL 2020 or 2030 or HUM 2610

Curricular listings include General Education requirements in Communication, History, Humanities and/or Fine Arts, Mathematics, Natural Sciences, and Social/Behavioral Sciences categories as outlined on pages 60–63.

Teacher Licensure
