Boutwell Dramatic Arts Building 205

Anderson, Boyd, Church, Clark, Garrard, Gibson, Gilchrist, Halladay, Hansen, Hunt, Kim, Macon, McCormick, McGilliard, Nofsinger, Richards, Seward, Smith, Sniderman, Walker, Willingham

Courses in the Department of Speech and Theatre are designed to meet the General Education needs of all students; to develop a wide range of skills to promote effective communication; to foster and sustain the understanding of theatre and dance within artistic, cultural, social, and historical contexts; to diagnose and treat persons with communication disorders; and to prepare students for careers in both corporate and nonprofit organizations.

The department offers a major in Speech and Theatre with concentrations in Communication Studies, Theatre, and Communication Disorders. Speech and Theatre is also the home department for an interdisciplinary major in Organizational Communication. Departmental programs lead to either a Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science degree.

Minors in Speech and Theatre, Communication Disorders, Entertainment Arts Design, and Dance are available. The department also participates in five interdisciplinary minors—Aging Studies, Health Care Services, Linguistic Studies, Leadership Studies, and Entertainment Technology. In addition, the department offers four co-curricular programs—MTSU Debate, University Dance, University Theatre, and MTSU Speech-Language and Hearing Clinic.

Curricular listings include General Education requirements in Communication, History, Humanities and/or Fine Arts, Mathematics, Natural Sciences, and Social/Behavioral Sciences categories as outlined on pages 64–67.

Major in Speech and Theatre

The major in Speech and Theatre is designed to provide students with maximum opportunities to develop theoretical and practical appreciation of all phases of oral communication. For students following the Communication Studies or Theatre concentration, preparation is offered for the pursuit of graduate study in a number of fields or for entry into professions including secondary school teaching, professional theatre, and communication work in business, industry, and government. The Communication Disorders concentration offers preparation for careers dealing with evaluation, treatment, and prevention of human communication disorders. Students who complete the Communication Disorders concentration often pursue graduate study in speech-language pathology, audiology, or related health professions.

All students pursuing a major within this department must complete the General Education requirements. The following is a suggested pattern of study for the first two years; however, consultation with the assigned advisor is necessary before each registration.

All students majoring in Speech and Theatre must complete COMM 2200 (Fundamentals of Communication) and earn a grade of C or better for the course to count as a prerequisite or to count towards graduation.

Students majoring in Speech and Theatre must receive a grade of C (2.00) or better in all courses in their concentration for the course to count as a prerequisite or to count toward graduation.

Transfer students may apply toward a major or minor in Speech and Theatre up to 12 semester hours of freshman and sophomore-level speech and theatre courses (1000- and 2000-level) taken at other accredited institutions, provided the grade in each course is a C or better and provided each course is either equivalent to an MTSU course or is an acceptable elective in the speech and theatre disciplines. Upper-division speech and theatre courses taken at accredited institutions may be accepted for credit toward a major or minor in Speech and Theatre, provided the grade in each course is a C or better and provided each course is either equivalent to an MTSU course or is an acceptable elective in the speech and theatre disciplines.

Concentration: Communication Studies

Courses focus on developing a wide range of skills to promote effective communication, analysis, and adaptability. Classical foundations and current research are covered. Students pursuing the Communication Studies concentration must complete COMM 2300, 3210, 3220, 3300, 3560, 4320, 4650, 4700, 4800 and ORCO 3240 plus 15 hours from the following: COMM 2150, 3020, 3225, 3230, 3325, 3340, 3580, 3620, 3630, 4040, 4260, 4620, 4630, 4800, 4900; CDIS 3250; ORCO 3250, 3500, 4250.

Students pursuing the Communication Studies concentration must also select at least one appropriate minor approved by the student's academic advisor.

Concentration: Theatre

Students pursuing the concentration in Theatre typically aim for performance careers, graduate school or conservatory, or theatre management. The minor in Entertainment Arts Design is encouraged. Students must complete COMM 2200 plus THEA 1030 and the following required Theatre courses: THEA 2110, 2500, 3100, 3200, 3700, 4800, 4810, 4990 plus 2 hours of THEA 3900 and 2 hours of THEA 4900. Students must also complete 9 hours from the following guided electives: THEA 3400, 3600, 3800, 3810, and 4820. Students pursuing the B.A. degree take twelve (12) courses in one foreign language and a cognate, and students pursuing the B.S. degree take a cognate and one minor. Students may select from the following four cognates:

Performance

Required (6 hours):

THEA 3510 and 4500

Upon completion of 3510 and 4500, students must audition and interview for admission to the cognate. If the student is not accepted, THEA 3510 and 4500 will count toward the 9 hours of guided electives required by the department.

Required (6 hours):

THEA 4560 and 4580

6 hours selected from:

THEA 3500, 3910, 4290, 4570; MUHL 3140, 3670

DANC 1000, 2000, 3010, 3040, 4000, 4100, 4110, 4800

Concentration: Communication Disorders

This program focuses on diagnosis and aid for those who have speech or hearing problems. It provides a foundation for students who wish to continue study at the graduate level to become certified as speech-language pathologists or audiologists or who wish to pursue careers in communication disorders.

Students pursuing the concentration in Communication Disorders must complete CDIS 3050, 3150, 3200, 3260, 3300, 3350, 3400, 4500, 4850, 4900, and either CDIS 3450 or 4800. Students must also complete a minimum of 9 hours of supervised clinical practicum through enrollment in CDIS 4550-4650 and 4700-4730 and a minimum of 12 hours of guided electives. Prior to enrollment in clinical methods, students must achieve a minimum overall GPA of 2.50 in 60 credit hours or 3.00 in the last 30 credit hours, a minimum GPA of 2.70 in the major, a minimal grade of C in each prerequisite course. To enroll in and continue clinical practicum, students must meet academic and professional eligibility criteria established by the faculty and published in the clinic manual. Academic criteria include the clinical methods GPA standards, mastery of phonetic features, and competence in speaking and writing. Students who do not receive a grade of B- or higher in both English composition courses (ENGL 1010 and 1020) will be required to take an additional English course to improve writing proficiency.

Major in Organizational Communication

The interdisciplinary major in Organizational Communication offers students preparation for careers in employee communication, special events and fundraising, and corporate and nonprofit communication. Opportunities for professional growth and networking are offered through IABC, the student chapter of the International Association of Business Communicators.

Students pursuing the 31-hour interdisciplinary major in Organizational Communication must complete COMM 2300, 3300, 3340, 4900; COMM 3220 or PSY 4380; ORCO 3240, 3250, 3500, 3750, 4500; ORCO 3650. Students must also take a statistics course (such as PSY 3020 or SOC 3050 or QM 2610 or MATH 1530) and SOC 3950 or 4560, and must choose 18 hours from a cognate list (see advisor). Students will have approximately 24 hours in electives and may also choose a minor to fulfill some of these hours; however, a minor is not required.

Students majoring in Organizational Communication must complete the General Education requirements. The following is a suggested pattern of study. Consult with an advisor before each registration.

THEA 4400	Intermediate Lighting for Arts and Entertainment

Minor in Dance

The Dance minor emphasizes cultural, social, and historical aspects of dance. Coursework meets National Dance Association standards. The minor requires 18 semester hours to include DANC 1000, 2000, 2010, 2020, 2040, 4100, and 4800.

Interdisciplinary Minors

Interdisciplinary minors are open to all students in the University. The Department of Speech and Theatre coordinates the interdisciplinary minor in Leadership Studies. See Interdisciplinary Minors beginning on page 80.

Teacher Licensure

The Speech and Theatre Department offers one teacher licensure program: Theatre (grades K–12).

Teacher Licensure in Theatre K–12

Students will complete a major in Speech and Theatre by following a specified program in the Theatre concentration.

There is also a Secondary Education minor requirement. Students must contact their Secondary Education minor advisors for approval of appropriate courses. (For specific procedures and additional requirements for teacher licensure, see page 205.)

NOTE: Please see the Educational Leadership Department on page 210 for Secondary Education minor requirements.

Cocurricular Requirements

The Speech and Theatre Department supports, directs, and staffs four cocurricular programs to supplement classroom theory and to benefit the University and surrounding communities. Students receive practical training through participation in cocurricular programs:

MTSU Debate—The debate program provides active intercollegiate competitive opportunities. The program is open to all undergraduate students in good academic standing.

University Dance—The MTSU Dance minor is housed in the Department of Speech and Theatre. Each year the department produces an “Evening of Dance” and one or more studio showcases. All students are invited to audition for the “Evening of Dance.” The department also has a Ballet Association for students interested in the art of ballet.

University Theatre—The University Theatre program presents three major dramatic productions during the academic year plus a children’s theatre production. All University Theatre performances are open to the public. Students majoring in Speech and Theatre and following the Theatre concentration participate in some aspect of each production. However, participation is open to all members of the University and local community.

MTSU Speech-Language and Hearing Clinic—The Speech-Language and Hearing Clinic is open to all students at the University in need of speech, language, and hearing diagnosis and therapy. There is no charge to MTSU students for this service. Diagnostic and therapeutic services for persons in the midstate area with speech-language and hearing problems are also provided for a nominal fee. Students in the Communication Disorders concentration work in the clinic under the direct supervision of faculty members certified by the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association.
