

GRADUATE PROGRAMS

Graduate degrees are planned to help fulfill specific purposes. Doctoral degrees are offered to educate university, community college, and junior college teacher/scholars in the fields of English, history, chemistry, economics, literacy studies, and human performance. The Specialist in Education degree is offered to educate administrators, teachers, and counselors at advanced levels for elementary and secondary schools.

Four degrees—the Master of Education, the Master of Arts in Teaching, the Master of Science in Teaching, and the Master of Business Education—are offered to educate public school teachers, supervisors, counselors, and administrators. The Master of Arts, the Master of Science, the Master of Professional Studies, and the Master of Social Work degrees are offered to prepare candidates for further graduate study and research, for teaching at the junior college level, for professional positions in a variety of fields, and for positions of leadership with state and federal agencies. The Master of Business Administration is offered to prepare candidates for leadership positions in business and industry, the Master of Criminal Justice is offered to prepare leaders in the criminal justice system, and the Master of Fine Arts is offered to individuals seeking advanced technical preparation in the recording industry.

THE FUNCTION OF EDUCATION IS TO TEACH ONE TO THINK INTENSIVELY AND TO THINK CRITICALLY.
INTELLIGENCE PLUS CHARACTER - THAT IS THE GOAL OF TRUE EDUCATION.
BE NOT SIMPLY GOOD; BE GOOD FOR SOMETHING.
