

JONES COLLEGE DEFINITIONS

- Academic Advisor – a person who is an expert in a college’s degree requirements, university policies and procedures who helps students achieve a timely graduation
- BAS N – North side of the Business and Aerospace Building; Locations for the advising center, deans, departments, and professors
- BAS S – South side of the Business and Aerospace Building; Classroom locations
- BBA and BS – Bachelor of Business Administration and Bachelor of Science
- Business Elective – a course taught in the Jones College of Business with one of the following prefixes: ACTG, BCED, BIA, BLAW, BUS, ECON, ENTR, FIN, INFS, LEAD, MGMT, MKT
- Business Core – common courses for Jones College majors; listed as CORE on the Upper Division form
- Catalog Year – the year a student enters the University; corresponds with a catalog and listed curriculum requirements
- Credit Hour – one hour of class a week
- EXL – a course that incorporates experiential learning; learning by doing; associated with the EXL Scholars Program
- Faculty Advisor – a person who teaches subjects in a student’s major field of students who acts as a mentor
- Freshman – a student who has earned between 0-29.99 credit hours
- Intent to Graduate – a form that must be completed by the student and handed in two semester before graduation
- Junior - a student who has earned between 50-89.99 credit hours
- Lower Division – 1000 and 2000 level courses
- MT Engage – a course using integrative thinking and reflection; associated with the MT Engage Program
- Pre-Business Courses – Macroeconomics, Microeconomics, Accounting Principles I, and Statistical Methods
- Prefix – the three or four digit letter combination before the course number; also called a rubric or subject
- Prerequisite – a course that is required to be taken before another course
- Priority Registration – the two weeks in April and November when currently enrolled students register for the following term or terms
- Purge – the day classes are dropped from student schedules for non-payment and/or confirmation of attendance
- Sophomore – a student who has earned between 30-49.99 credit hours
- Senior - a student who has earned 90+ credit hours
- Supplemental Instruction (SI) – a peer-assisted, group study and discussion method available to students in SI courses. BIA 2610 and a number of US HIST courses offer this option.
- Upper Division – 3000 and 4000 level courses
- Upper Division Form – official advising sheet that contains courses, the admission policy, and graduation requirements